JUDGE SHEELY GIVES OATHS TO SIX OFFICIALS IN COURT TODAY

The Adams County Court opened with prayer this morning as the court prepared to administer the oath of office to six new county officers.

Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, offered the prayer, "especially for those who take office this day." His prayer urged that the good of the county and office come before politics and that those in office "remember that Gettysburg is a name known throughout the world" and asked that the officials be guided so that "their example of good government might be a model to all."

Associate Judge Clarence D. Deardorff was sworn in first, with Register and Recorder Carl S. Menchey presenting him his commission. When Deardorff had signed the oath before Prothonotary Herbert W. Miller, Register Menchey and the court, Judge W. C. Sheely asked Deardorff to assume his place on the judicial bench to preside over the swearing in of the other new officers.

First Woman Jury Commissioner

The four other men and one woman were called before the clerk's desk to be sworn in as a group and presented with their commissions by Menchey. They included Sheriff Dawson R. Miller, Clerk of Courts Kenneth W. Johns, Treasurer Clark E. Spence and Jury Commissioners Mrs. Laura S. Freed and Mervin I. Rice. Mrs. Freed is the first woman to serve as jury commissioner. Mr. Rice, at 71, was the oldest official present.

Judge W. C. Sheely then welcomed the new officers, "on behalf of the court and the people of Adams County, into the official family." He told them, "One of the greatest privileges a person can have is to serve in public office."

"We on a county level come into closer contact with more people than do officers on the state or national level and so we have a difficult responsibility. We not only have to conduct ourselves well in our offices—but for that required of us—but we must conduct ourselves in such a fashion that the impression we give the people we serve is such that it will strengthen their impression of democracy, for much that the people know of the workings of their democracy comes through their contact with us."

James P. Flemming, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Flemming, Fairfield R. 1, was treated Saturday for a fracture of his left arm received in a fall while playing.

Miss Anna Boyer, 20, 161 N. Stratton St., received treatment for a laceration of her right index finger. Joyanna Croph, 8, Lancaster, was treated for a laceration of her upper lip sustained when the auto in which she was riding stopped suddenly.

Texas Faces Flood Threats While Snow Strands Autos

DALLAS (AP)—Continuing rains brought new flood threats today in south Texas, where 1,800 persons have been evacuated.

Other areas of the Southwest remained in the grip of a heavy snow that left hundreds of motorists stranded.

The newest flood threat was in the lower Rio Grande Valley at Alamo, scene of a major flood in 1953. Waters that flooded 71 city blocks at nearby Edinburg and forced evacuation of nearly 800 persons were flowing into the Alamo area. The crest was expected there late today.

Five hundred persons were taken from flooded homes at Bishop and another 500 at Robstown in

Shown as they appeared as they took their oath of office this morning in the court room here are the county's new officers: Jury Commissioner Mrs. Laura S. Freed, Associate Judge Clarence D. Deardorff, Jury Commissioner Mervin I. Rice, Treasurer Clark E. Spence, Clerk of Courts Kenneth W. Johns and Sheriff Dawson R. Miller. Mr. Rice and Mr. Johns were re-elected to the posts they hold. The picture was taken after the group was sworn in, during a recess of the court, because the taking of pictures is not allowed during court sessions. Judge W. C. Sheely administered the oaths of office. (Times photo)

SAYS PRAYER IS UP-TO-DATE, NEEDS PRACTICE

"Prayer is not an old fashioned routine but an up to date exercise," the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, told a large audience of the opening of the week of union services Sunday evening in the Presbyterian Church. The series which continues through Friday is in observance of the Universal Week of Prayer.

This evening the service will be held in the same church at 7:30 o'clock with the Rev. Lena Parr, pastor of the AME Zion Church, delivering the sermon and the Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, in charge of the services.

The Rev. Herbert N. Brownlee, local Baptist pastor, was in charge of the service Sunday evening and was assisted by two laymen of his congregation, Wayne Van Dyke, who read the scripture lesson from the 18th chapter of Luke, and William Covington, who offered prayer.

Music By Trio

There was special music by a trio from the Baptist Church, Mrs. Paul Metz, Mrs. Wayne Van Dyke and Miss Glenda Hess. The ushers represented four local churches, H. Edgar Riegle, Forrest Craver, Lawson Wright and George Lewis.

Preaching on the theme "Men Ought Always to Pray," the Rev. Mr. MacAskill said: "Jesus knew more about prayer and its merits than any man that ever lived and His counsel to us is found in our text: 'Men ought always to pray and not faint.' He discussed elements of prayer including petition, thanksgiving, confession, intercession and the element of communing between God and man."

Then he listed five reasons why prayers fail or not answered. "One reason that our prayers are not answered is the interference of little things. We question God's eternal goodness and we practice indulgences that are against our best interests and our spiritual perception of God and His will is impaired. We become blind to the reality of God and we lose faith in the power of prayer."

Don't Stop Praying

"Sometimes our prayers are not answered because we don't ask for the right things. We ought to be sure that if our prayer is not answered promptly we do not become discouraged and discouraged and quit praying."

"We must remember that our understanding is meager and we ought

Several Missiles Poised For Firing

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Several ballistic missiles stood poised in servicing towers today and rocketmen converged on this Florida east coast launching area in strength that suggested firings were in prospect.

Officials were mum but there was some basis for speculation that satellite launching attempts soon will be made.

Three of the big rockets on launching pads were Atlas intercontinental ballistic missiles. One was test-fired on its test Saturday with no word on whether the stationary performance tryout was a success.

At least one Air Force Thor, an intermediate missile, also rested in its tower. There was heightened activity around a tower shrouding a Navy Vanguard rocket, which was designed to throw a satellite into orbit in space.

The dog law enforcement agent has been notified.

PITZER HONORS 11 WORKERS FOR SAFETY MARKS

Eleven employees of the H. Earl Pitzer Trucking Company, Aspers, received safety awards and cards for not being involved in "chargeable" accidents over a combined period of 29 years at the annual dinner meeting of the employees and their wives or husbands given by the company in the Aspers Fire Hall Saturday evening.

Seven of the employees were driving who were not involved in accidents for from one through six years. The four others are loaders who were also accident-free for from one to five years.

The safety drivers were: Reuben Zepp who drove thousands of miles during the past six years without a chargeable accident; Fred Plank, four years; Paul Black, three years; Robert Routsong, two years, and Lester Hensel, Paul Settle and Charles "Ed" Rothenhoefer, each one year.

85 Attend Dinner

The loaders were Wayne Plank, five years; Merle Plank, four years, and Charles Smith and Joseph McKendrick each one year.

There was only one accident in which a Pitzer employee was involved during December and that was not a driver or a loader.

More than 85 attended the dinner. Charles W. Pitzer, general manager of the firm, presided as toastmaster.

He expressed his thanks and appreciation to the employees for "your long and faithful and devoted cooperation with us." He also thanked the wives who "share in this spirit of cooperation."

He read a telegram from H. Earl Pitzer, president of the firm who is in South Carolina, which stated: "I am sincerely sorry that circumstances will not permit my being with you upon this annual occasion. You all have been faithful employees and you have been safe drivers."

Lt. Gen. Gavin Spurs Revolt For Shakeup In Military High Command; Retiring In Protest

WASHINGTON (AP)—A spectacular one-man revolt by Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin spurred demands today for a shakeup in the military high command.

Gavin, chief of the Army's research and development program, told a reporter he is sticking by his announced intention to retire from the Army March 31. He will be 51 then, with 30 years service. "I won't compromise my principles and I won't go along with the Pentagon system," he said.

Senators To Have Look

Some members of Congress expressed concern at Gavin's move, and a Senate subcommittee planned to explore the matter promptly.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) said Gavin's stand emphasizes what he called a need for Congress to consider overhauling the present military setup.

Gavin said that "I haven't been able to get much done, the system being what it is." Without elaborating on this, he said he is

2 COUNTY MEN ESCAPE HOTEL BERWICK BLAZE

Two Adams County men were among guests at the Morton House in Berwick which was swept by fire early Saturday morning. Both escaped unhurt—one by groping through smoke-filled corridors in the darkness and the other by smashing a window and jumping to a fire escape.

Melvin "Sonny" Emlet, aged about 24, York Springs, escaped barefooted but lost his wallet and all his clothing, excepting the underwear he wore as he made his escape.

John Jacobs, East Berlin, who occupied another third floor room in the hotel, used a chair to smash a locked window and jumped to a fire escape. He took time to dress and gather his belongings before he left his hotel room.

One Dead, One Missing

Both men were in Berwick as employees of Hugh McDermitt, near York Springs, and were engaged in installing a bowling alley. Other men on the job had left Berwick but Emlet and Jacobs had remained to put finishing touches on a new alley. They had their suitcases packed and ready to leave Saturday morning.

Emlet, who had retired about 1 a.m., was aroused a few hours later by a commotion in the hallway and the odor of smoke. He arose, turned on the light switch but found the electricity was off. Barefooted and clad only in his underwear, Emlet groped along the dark, smoke-filled corridor to a stairway, made his way to the second floor and then to the main floor and got out of

Sixth Congressional Meet Under Ike Opens Tuesday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress gets back to work tomorrow in an atmosphere of urgency far different from the mood of last year's pre-Sputnik session.

Things are a lot different than they were last Aug. 30 when Senate and House adjourned after chopping 3 1/2 billion dollars from defense and foreign aid appropriations and passing the first civil rights legislation in about 80 years.

In the interim, Russia launched two earth satellites and the United States failed in its first launching attempt.

Rep. Wright D-Tex.) summed up the new mood this way: "There is an uneasiness to get on with the job, a sense of urgency."

SOLDIER WHO ELOPED WITH WARD OF COURT IS FINED $100

Warren Thomas, Carlisle, a soldier stationed in Delaware, was directed by the Adams County court this morning to pay $100 for the use of the county and the costs and was placed on probation for two years because the soldier and a girl, who is a ward of the Adams County court, eloped a month ago and were married.

The court held that since both knew that marriage was forbidden for the time being, there should be punishment for wilful violation of the law.

Thomas, appearing before the court on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor ward of the court, was given a suspended sentence on condition he pay the fine and costs, and placed on probation for a two-year period. The sentence may also provide him with a discharge from the Army without honor, according to a statement made before the court by Thomas' attorney. The court held that when people knowingly take the law into their own hands and do what is forbidden, they should not come to the court asking that all be forgiven afterward to prevent other undesirable results.

Marriage Does Well

But testimony in the court indicated the marriage is doing well. The bride is residing with Thomas' parents in Cumberland County and, according to the parents who appeared with their son, all is "harmonious." It was noted in court that the girl's parents gave their consent to the wedding. The court held that the girl was out the parents' control, and the court could not condone wilful violation of the court's regulations.

Milton Woodward, Hanover, was sentenced to 30 days in jail and ordered to pay the costs after revocation of a prior suspended sentence. He had been given a suspended sentence in November and ordered to pay $150 for the use of the county and costs of $31.50 and was placed on probation for three months. Since then he has paid $5 toward the total he owes the county.

The court was told that Woodward had been unable to pay because, while he was supposed to seek board and lodging and $2 per day from his employment, he received only board and lodging and $2.50 a week. Asked why he couldn't get a better job, Woodward said he thought he could get one, and at that point the court revoked the suspension and placed the sentence.

To Serve Time 7 Days A Week

Calvin H. Bobo, York Springs, was sentenced to 30 days in jail and ordered to pay the costs and a fine of $50 on a charge of driving while under the influence. A month ago Bobo had asked that sentence be delayed because he would have annual leave coming up beginning this year and wanted to serve during that time. The court held that he had used the leave because of a relative's death and asked if he might serve his time in jail evenings and weekends. The court held that such a system would disrupt the proceedings at the jail and the court would not countenance the idea and that Bobo should begin thirty 24-hour days at the jail.

Victor E. Arentz, Gettysburg R. 2, was sentenced to 30 days in jail and ordered to pay $50 fine and costs on a charge of driving while under the influence. It was noted in connection with the sentence that Arentz had originally been charged as a juvenile, but since he was approaching 18 and this marked the third time he was apprehended driving while under the influence, the matter was brought into quarter sessions court.

$1,180 In Arrears

Robert N. Helm, Gardners R. 1, $1,180 in arrears on a support order as of December 28, according to a report in court, was found guilty of contempt of court, and was sentenced to 60 days in jail. The sentence was, however, immediately suspended and he was given till Saturday to pay up all payments back to November or begin serving the 60 days.

Set Hearing Date

February 3 at 10 a.m. was set as the time for a hearing on a petition for alimony pending decision in the divorce action of Glenn J. Brink, Gettysburg, against Violet M. Brink, according to the petition, Brink is earning about $200 a week.

The court set January 27 as the date when a number of defendants will appear before the associate judges to renew bail for February term. Under the prior system of a January term of court the defendants would have appeared January 27 and bail was given for that date. As a result the special day of court is being held to extend the bail and because Judge W. C. Sheely will be absent from the county, the associate judges will preside for the bail renewals.

The support order against Arthur Kenneth Sites, Fairfield, was suspended until further order following a brief hearing.

Placed On Parole

Jeremiah McCray, Talladega, Ala., who had completed a sentence on burglary and larceny, was placed on parole and given three months in which the pay costs.

James David Blevins, Taneytown, who had served a sentence on a burglary and larceny charge was placed on parole and waived extradition to Virginia where he will face another charge.

James Frame, Bucks County, who disappeared after being directed to pay $24 restitution and $40 costs on a larceny charge, and who voluntarily reappeared to pay up was discharged from parole upon payment.

SAYS PRAYER

to wait upon the Lord and wrestle in prayer. Sometimes prayers are not answered because of our impatience. We pray, rise and run as though we don't expect an answer. Someone has said we ought to spend as much time listening to God as we do in talking to Him. Prayer is an achievement, an art and requires practice, training and leisure.

"Prayers also are unanswered because they are spasmodic and because they lack earnestness. Some of us use prayer as a last resort with our backs to the wall. Our prayers need real zeal. Real prayers of the great men of the Bible and you will be impressed with the passion with which they prayed."

"THE KINDLY GHOST"

The ghost of the past is haunting me . . . I feel it standing near . . . I know not why but something fills . . . my weary heart with fear . . . this specter beckons me to go . . . back through the years gone by . . . It takes my hand and leads me as . . . I breathe a plaintive sigh . . . down through the corridors of time . . . I slowly make my way . . . until at last I'm standing . . . face to face with yesterday . . . old friends are there and I am thrilled . . . to see their smiling faces . . . hand in hand we sojourn to . . . revered familiar places . . . at first I thought the past would show . . . me things I should forget . . . but, strangely, memory relates . . . only a sweet duet . . . the kindly ghost then lies away . . . the present reappears . . . once more I feel the icy touch . . . of sullen doubts and fears.

Eliminate Ex-Con As Murder-Suspect

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Leonard James Young, a 45-year-old ex-convict has been eliminated as a possible suspect in the 1954 slaying of Marguerite Keota, Phoenixville, Pa., secretary.

Two Pennsylvania policemen, Ronald Paxson, Chester County detective, and state trooper John Cole, who arrived here Friday, said over the weekend that Young was in a Nashville Salvation Army shelter at the time of Miss Keota's death.

An old newspaper clipping describing the finding of Miss Keota's body was found on Young when he was arrested on a drunkenness charge. The Pennsylvania policemen arrived shortly after the finding was reported.

Little Rock's school integration troubles have served notice that the nation's race problem is far from solved. But despite some congressional cries for further action, there is small chance of another civil rights bill becoming law this year.

The Senate rackets inquiry has spurred demands for laws to prevent labor union abuses.

The economy, once bursting with prosperity, has taken a downswing. Tax cut talk, curbed by Sputnik, could be revived on grounds a pump primer is needed to bolster the economy. Eisenhower's plea for a five-year expansion of the reciprocal trade law may face greater than normal difficulties.

GAS BLASTS CAUSE FIRES

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Natural gas explosions erupted from underground lines yesterday and set off fires that destroyed most of a city block near Capitol Square. Simultaneous explosions blew the front out of an auto body shop and caused minor damage at Truax Field, an Air Force base on the city's East Side.

A middle-aged couple were killed when their house blew up. Fire Chief Edward J. Page said damage would total about half a million dollars.

William Rossiter of the state fire marshal's office said failure of a regulator valve sent gas under high pressure into lines equipped for low-pressure loads. Explosions occurred where gas seeped through weak points. Jagged cracks were ripped in pavement in the Bassett Street area and flames shot upward. Firemen kept the flames contained within a square block. It took 15 hours to bring them under control.

Keep up the good work. Drive safely. Remember, the life you save may be your own."

Introduces Guests

Toastmaster Pitzer introduced the guests at the speakers' table; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller, Biglerville, who have attended every Pitzer dinner; Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Roy; Mrs. Charles Pitzer; Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Smith, McSherrystown, the former being traffic manager; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pitzer, Carlisle; Curtis Groat and Carl Hobbs, safety engineer for the Carolina Casualty Company.

Hobbs spoke on the importance of safe driving. He said that during the last 10 months of 1956 Pitzer drivers had 5.7 chargeable accidents per month and that during the entire year 1957 there were 5.8 accidents. "I know that this is not the best you can do and we feel certain that you will improve this record in 1958."

Hobbs explained that if a driver is at all involved in an accident, that is if through some failure of omission or commission he contributes even slightly to an accident, it is a chargeable accident to him and ruins his record. "If a driver is involved in a chargeable accident he cannot participate in safety awards," he added.

Break Long Records

He said that "two drivers broke long records which extended from December 1, 1956, to November 30, 1957."

"From July into August last year the Pitzer drivers drove 34 consecutive days without a chargeable accident and from last November 26 to January 3, 1958, Pitzer men drove 40 days without an accident," he added. After introducing John R. Pitzer, manager of the Pitzer farms, the toastmaster presented the following employees and their guests:

Eugene Asper, Paul Black, Charles Baker, Bernard Chrismer, Roy Conley, Leroy Chronister, Walter Cristoforo, Joseph Eyer, James Good-year, Lester Hensel, Howard Leath-eman, John Nimmon, Robert Noss, Jay Neidig, Frederick Plank, Edward Rothenhoefer, Paul Raffensberger, Robert Routsong, Paul Settle, Harry C. ## MARYLAND IS GETTING BIDS ON ROAD WORK

The Maryland State Roads Commission is accepting bids until January 28 at noon on the modernization of another large section of Maryland 194, a heavily used north-south highway through Frederick and Carroll Counties into Pennsylvania.

This project will cover 5,218 miles, extending from Maryland 97 in Taneytown northeastward to the Pennsylvania state line. Grading, drainage, surfacing and resurfacing are scheduled. It is reported that about half of the job may involve relocation.

The last report of the roads commission on the 12-year construction program listed the scheduled improvement and said it would include widening to 24 feet along with the widening of two bridges. The estimated cost, including engineering and right of ways, was figured then at $840,000.

Goes Through Littlestown

The project will nearly complete the streamlining of this highway northward from Ceresville where it begins at Maryland 26, through Walkersville, Woodsboro, Keymar and Taneytown to the Pennsylvania state line. Patapasco Engineering Company has begun the modernization of the highway from Woodsboro to Ceresville. From Woodsboro north to the Frederick County line and to the Middleburg Road in Carroll County, the highway has been improved. The Keymar-Taneytown section is reported to be in good shape, although it has not been modernized as yet. It is listed for some improvements, particularly widening, later in the 12-year program.

Maryland 194 becomes Pennsylvania 194 through Littlestown to Hanover, which is its northern terminus. It has been improved through Pennsylvania. The road is used considerably as an alternate to main highway U.S. 15.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the
Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times
ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Death Of John B. McPherson.
Eq: It becomes our painful duty to announce the death, early this morning, of our respected fellow citizen, John B. McPherson, Esq., Cashier of the Bank of Gettysburg, a situation he has retained ever since the establishment of that institution in 1812 — more than forty years. He was in his 69th year. His health has been feeble for a considerable time, and he sank gradually and peacefully to his rest, leaving a reputation behind him which is a pleasant inheritance to his children. Of stern, unbending integrity, and of exemplary moral character, warm in his friendships, closely attentive and correct in all his business transactions, few men have left us who possessed more of the confidence of the community than did the deceased. We have been warm and intimate friends for many years and it became us not to let his departure pass without this our slight tribute to his worth.

Railroad Opening: Wednesday next has been fixed upon by the Board of Directors of the Gettysburg Railroad Company for a formal opening of the Road for business from New Oxford to Hanover. On and after that time, passenger trains will run over the Road regularly — the public generally are invited to be present on the occasion and take a ride over the Road. The train will leave Oxford on that day about noon.

New Year's Day: Was a splendid day for the season, and from the liveliness of our streets there must have been general enjoyment. The new Brass Band was out during the afternoon and "discouraged sweet music." This will be a considerable addition to the interest of our public assemblages. "The Blues" are to be out on Friday, with the band, to celebrate the anniversary of the Battle of New Orleans.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Address Delivered By Capt. John F. McCreary Before The Adams County Teachers Institute:
"I do not hesitate to say to any school district in Adams county, if your schools are not what you want or what they ought to be, to a very great extent the fault is your own. Do not saddle it all on your teachers or make scapegoats of your directors. Pay better wages — get good teachers — visit your schools — hold up the hands of your teachers and make them feel the dignity and honor of their profession — and you can soon carry your school to almost any desirable standard of excellence."

Local Items: The Ivey Minstrels of York will appear at the Opera House on or about the 11th inst. Last Thursday, ex-Sheriff Hersh, of Cumberland township, killed a hog, which dressed 517 lbs. Henry J. Stahl, Esq., was elected a member of the Democratic State Central Committee on Monday last.

John Culp, of M., has leased the Orphans' Homestead buildings, and will take possession April 1. It is Mr. Culp's purpose to take summer boarders. The buildings are well adapted for the purpose and Mr. Culp and his excellent lady have had large experience in that direction.

Good Samaritan Lodge No. 336 F.A.A.M. spent St. John's night (Dec. 27th) very enjoyable in their lodge room. After the serving of oysters and other delicacies, Judge McClean made some very entertaining remarks.

Highland Items: A few days ago we saw several farmers in their fields husking corn, something not often seen at this season of the year.

There has been a new bridge built across the stream at Snyder's Mill, the county bearing part of the expense and the township part.

With this issue we begin a new volume of the Star and Sentinel, the 83rd. The Sentinel was started in 1900 concurrent with the formation of Adams county. A com-

KEEP GOING FORWARD

A person, or business, that keeps going forward has nothing to worry about. Each advance in mind and business gains inspires itself. Ideas are the fuel that keep everything on the go, continually breaking all records. It's only when that flow stops that recession sets in.

Keep going forward, should be the motto of us all. People follow a leader. Follow yourself and keep gaining on yourself and you will go far! We should keep in touch with our own, not someone else. We are our own world. No one can patent our dreams! The athlete keeps his eye on the record that someone else has scored. He can by continuing to go forward, by becoming master of himself. Gene Tunney once told me that he kept the championship ever in his mind. He intended to become the champion heavyweight boxer of the world! So he won the title.

We ought to keep examining and appraising ourselves. By so doing we can't help but draw nearer our goal. The nearer we get to that goal the more inspired we become. It's that simple. It's little by little that we become bigger and bigger. That familiar line from the poet Longfellow has always inspired me. He said: "Lives of great men all remind us we can make OUR lives sublime and, departing, leave behind us footprints on the sands of time." To dream, to aspire, to keep going forward, can become the plan and purpose of us all. How inspiring are the life stories of all our great men! They walked right past failure. They never took note of discouragement or temporary defeats. The kept going forward!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Be My Guest!" Protected, 1958, by The George Matthews Adams Service

THE NEW YEAR

May your New Year's skies be bright ones.

And your New Year's troubles few.

May your New Year's cares be light ones.

And your New Year's friendships true.

But if sorrow should come tapping At your chamber door, then may You with courage hear the rapping.

And with faith endure the day.

May your New Year's joys be splendid.

And your New Year's plans succeed.

May your Old Year's cares be ended.

May you get what'er you need.

May your New Year's sun keep shining.

But should your skies turn a gray.

May you view them unreproving

And keep plodding on your way.

May your New Year's days be lucky;

But should grim misfortune fall

May it find you always plucky

And undaunted by it all.

May you harvest sweeter pleasure

Than the Old Year ever gave;

But if gall should taint the measure,

May you quaff it and be brave.

COMPARES NEW 4-YEAR PLAN TO SMITH-HUGHES

By W. JOYNE MACFARLAN
WASHINGTON (AP)—World War I gave impetus 41 years ago to establishment of the federal-state vocational education system to improve the nation's military, industrial and economic preparedness.

Now Russian scientific achievements are giving impetus to a basic four-year federal aid to education program aimed at eliminating scholastic weaknesses, with emphasis on science and mathematics. The new four-year plan was outlined by Eisenhower administration officials last week.

A major difference between the Smith-Hughes Act of 1917—which has resulted in a successful nationwide vocational education system—and the currently proposed program is that the earlier plan was long range in concept from the beginning. The present proposal is basically a plan for only four years.

Billion In Four Years
The current proposal is for 225 million dollars the first year, and a total of about one billion over the full four years.

A major part of the new program would give the states more than 100 million dollars a year, to be matched dollar-for-dollar by the states or local communities, to improve teaching of science and math. Administration spokesmen say this would be operated under a plan similar to the vocational system.

The states and communities could use the federal aid, matched with funds beyond those already being devoted to such purposes, to provide additional science and math teachers or raise the pay of such teachers, or to purchase materials and equipment.

States Rights Factor
The question of states rights is a factor in discussion of the administration's new program, which would take priority over the previously proposed school construction bill. Administration spokesmen say the measure will stimulate state action.

Secretary of Welfare Folsom said in a memorandum to Eisenhower that the emergency education program had been developed "to help stimulate the state, local and private action necessary to meet the critical security needs." He added:

"As these national needs are more fully met through increased state, local and private action, federal support would no longer be needed. The program will therefore contain specific provision for its termination at the end of the fourth year, except for certain scholarship and fellowship activities which must be phased out gradually."

Folsom has also said Russia's progress in education and in science demands a new look at the world of today in the interest of America's security.

Police quickly admitted a mistake had been made. The summons was cancelled, leaving Wright's traffic record unmarred.

2 Children Are Snatched From Blaze

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6 (AP)—Two terrified children, snatched from a flaming mattress in a third-floor room of their home, were in critical condition today with severe burns.

Two men walking past the house climbed through a window and rescued Melvyn Cain, 4, and Deborah, 3, after hearing the screams of their mother. She was unable to reach her children from inside the house because of the flames.

Police said an older brother, Charles, 7, admitted starting the fire yesterday while playing with his four brothers and sisters. The three eldest children ran out of the room when the fire started.

COLLEGE PREXY CALLED "MOST OVERWORKED"

By JOHN KOENIG JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The "most overworked man in America" is the college president, an ex-Pennsylvania college president maintains.

College officials should strive to make the public aware of the important role played by the college president as the nation faces the current education crisis, says Dr. Theodore A. Distler.

Distler's 32 years in college administration and teaching have convinced him that the spark plug to the whole advanced education program is the college president.

After a 13-year term as president of Franklin and Marshall College at Lancaster, Pa., Distler became executive director of the Assn. of American Colleges in 1954.

Describes Task

Distler emphasized in an interview what he considers the ideal for both a college and a college president.

"A college is a meeting place of scholars," he said, "where older, more mature persons meet the fresh output of live American boys and girls for four years of courses, discussion of issues, personal interviews and extracurricular activities, in the hope that they will be able to turn out a person who will continue to educate himself."

"The college president must provide these people with the atmosphere, the tools they need and as few inhibitions as possible to permit them to grow."

Prior to his years at F. and M. Distler was dean at Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., from 1934 to 1941.

To Use Camera In Control Of Canines

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—No more can dog owners here say, "That wasn't my hound that dug up the Jones' flower bed. The mutt never leaves the yard."

The Idaho Humane Society chapter has obtained a camera for use in photographing dogs at large. The city has a new ordinance requiring dogs to be kept on the owner's property or pay a fine of up to $15.

The society says fines have been quietly paid when a master is confronted with a photo of Rover among the roses. If argument should arise, the dog, the master and the pictures go to court.

FURMAN SAYS HE WILL BATTLE FOR GOVERNOR

HARRISBURG (AP)—Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman says he will become—once he announces—an aggressive candidate for governor. He did not say when he would announce, however.

In a weekend statement, Furman also said there was no truth to rumors that he might settle for a lesser post under some kind of a deal.

"I say as clearly as it is possible to express it: once I announce—I will be an active candidate right down the line. There will be no pulling back."

Furman's efforts to obtain support for the Democratic nomination for governor are being opposed by Gov. Leader, Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia reportedly is a candidate more to the governor's liking.

Furman, on the other hand, has received the support of such figures as Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader, and Clarence Bowers, Reading battery manufacturer.

Powerful Support

In addition, Furman said in his statement, "I have powerful support throughout the state." He also noted that he served twice as speaker of the House and that he sponsored the first unemployment compensation bill in Pennsylvania in 1935.

"When I announce," he said, "I will give my opponents as much aggressiveness as they can absorb." He added:

"I will not make any deal with anyone which might undercut my position as a potential candidate for governor."

"As to ill-conceived rumors that I would relinquish my status as a possible gubernatorial contender to make a deal personally beneficial to me... I brand that as false propaganda."

Wants Tax Help For Students' Parents

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Parents should be allowed a $1,000 annual federal income tax deduction for each child they send to college, in the opinion of Rep. Hugh Scott (R-Pa.).

In an interview yesterday prior to a television (WIC) forum sponsored by the Foreign Policy Assn. of Pittsburgh, the Philadelphia congressman said:

"At present the $600 exemption for children over 18 where the parent contributes more than half of his upkeep just doesn't take care of anybody's education. We ought to add at least up to $400 per student, raising the exemption to $1,000."

Scott indicated he was interested in a seat in the U. S. Senate this year but said he still is undecided whether to make the race.

Brooklyn has a bigger population than Manhattan. The count is: Brooklyn 2,781,000 Manhattan 1,898,000.

ONLY TWO BIG COURT TEAMS ARE UNBEATEN

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With most conference races barely under way, only two ranking powers in college basketball remained undefeated today—an unusual, if not unprecedented, state of affairs for so early in the year.

West Virginia and Mississippi State each have 10-0 records. State gets its chance to extend its streak tonight against Alabama in a Southeastern Conference game.

State's biggest threat is Jack Kubusyn, third in the league scoring race. He's only 5-10 but has been hitting at a 22.8-point-per-game pace.

Worries Available

If State and West Virginia are looking around for worries, they only need consider some of the following:

1. No one will hazard a guess at what will happen in the Big Eight, which begins operations tomorrow night. Kansas, the defending champion and NCAA runner-up last season, as beat by Oklahoma State with Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain ill. Tomorrow's game against Oklahoma probably will tell the Chamberlain story. He's supposed to be ready.

2. Maryland, big wheel in the Atlantic Coast Conference since North Carolina was beaten, has lost two games in the past week. Clemson dumped them 73-66 Saturday night. The Terps play North Carolina Saturday.

Conference In Tizzy

3. The Southwest Conference is in a tizzy. Texas Tech, the brand new league member, whipped pre-season favorite Rice Saturday. Tonight Tech gets a shot at the current choice, Texas Christian.

4. Michigan State, one of the monsters of the Big Ten which ran up seven victories in a row at the start of the season, was beaten 70-56 by Ohio State, a team that was clubbed by seven straight foes.

West Virginia has two games this week. They meet Villanova Wednesday and George Washington Saturday.

Bullets Give Muhlenburg Big Scare Before Bowling 64-63; Next Tilt At Navy

Better days appear in the offing for the Gettysburg College cagers after their tremendous performance at Allentown Saturday night before bowling to strong Muhlenburg 64-63. The Mules, losers only to Temple in seven games, had been picked to win as they pleased against the Bullets who are now 1-7.

Bob Hulton's outfit held the lead the lead twice at 9-8 and 11-9 and fell behind as much as 28-18 midway in the first half but closed the gap and battled right down to the wire in a thriller.

Frank Capitani gave the Bullets their first point on a foul after 2:43 minutes before Muhlenburg surged ahead 6-1. Del Warfel landed a lay-up for Gettysburg's initial goal. A short time later Warfel's stab from the outside gave the locals a 9-8. Mel Kessler tied the score with a free toss. Warfel, top point man for the game with 20, looped a one-hander to make it 11-9 for the Bullets' last lead. Clint Jeffries, a brilliant all-around performer for the Mules who wound up with 18 points, drove through for a lay-up and his team then swept ahead 28-18. Muhlenburg enjoyed its biggest edge at 33-22 before the Bullets spurted on goals by Stan Traymore and Bobby Walsack. Traymore finishing off the first half scoring on a goal and pair of fouls to slash the Mule lead to 35-30 at half time.

Bullets Spurt
Muhlenburg abandoned its 1-3-1 zone for a man-for-man style of play in the second half and the Bullets pulled into contention early when Marty Miller, playing his first game after being out due to a leg injury, landed a goal and Traymore a foul to pare Muhlenburg's lead to 38-37 after 2:30.

The confident Mules several times threatened to pull away by hiking their lead to five points but each time the scrappy Bullets fought right back.

Gettysburg cut the lead to one-point again at 54-53 on McGowan's two free throws but the Mules bounced back on goals by Steve Matell and Jay Sarner.

Thrilling Finish
With but two minutes remaining Muhlenburg led 62-57. Walsack landed a set and Warfel a one-hander after which only 1:58 remained. With 42 seconds remaining Matell looped two free tosses to apparently clinch the game. The Bullets tried desperately in the waning seconds. McGowan finally landed a goal from the side with 33 seconds of play left. Kessler blew a foul toss with 20 seconds remaining. With but 11 seconds left, Jeffries fouled Frank Grzelecki. The latter missed the shot which would have tied the count. The Mules captured the rebound but Walsack made a steal and took a running, desperation shot which flew wide just before the buzzer sounded.

Gettysburg connected on 27 of 64 shots while the Mules made but 25 of 80. Muhlenburg led in rebounding with 60 to 36.

Face Three Games
The Bullets have three engagements this week, meeting Navy at Annapolis Wednesday at 4:30 p.m., Johns Hopkins at Baltimore Thursday evening, and Lehigh here Saturday evening.

Mother And Four Children Homeless

MILTON, Pa. (P)—A mother and her four children were homeless today as a result of a flash fire that destroyed their small, one-floor home on Route 15 between Milton and New Columbia in Union County.

Fire Chief Eric Strecht of Milton said the fire yesterday was caused by an overheated stove. He said Mrs. Althea Nagle and her children, ranging in age from 2½ to 9 years were uninjured by the smoke or flames.

He said Mrs. Nagle discovered the fire and carried her children from the burning building before she ran to a nearby diner for aid in extinguishing the fire.

She was taken to the Lewisburg Hospital suffering with shock. The children were being cared for temporarily in the homes of relatives.

RUMORS FLY AS COLLEGE COACHES MEET

PHILADELPHIA (P)—The rumor machines stirred up a lot of froth today as college football coaches and athletic directors, nearly 2,000 strong, jammed into Philadelphia for the main sessions for their annual conventions.

Conversation was concerned mainly with what football coaches may land the choicest jobs available — those at Texas A&M and Stanford.

Half a dozen other head coaching positions are also open. Names heard most often are those of Cactus Jack Curcio, color of Utah coach who recently led the West team to a surprise victory in the Shrine East-West game at San Francisco, and Jim Myers, young Iowa State coach.

Myers was reported to have made an undercover visit to A&M before coming here. Curcio, according to other reports, could have his choice of either A&M or Stanford. He is said to have told friends he isn't interested in just a head coaching job. He also is athletic director at Utah and wants to be top man wherever he goes.

Started Sunday
Texas A&M offers such a dual role. But Curcio isn't talking. Another version is that Navy's Eddie Erdelatz was willing to talk to Texas A&M people but negotiations for an interview got fouled up. Other names mentioned as possibilities include Minnesota's Murray Warmath, Andy Plimley of Tulane and former Harvard Coach Lloyd Jordan.

The football coaches got down to business yesterday when the Rules Committee of the American Football Coaches Assn. drew up five recommendations to be presented to the national Rules Committee later this week. Most important was a liberalized substitution rule which would permit a player to return to the game once in each quarter whether or not he had started that period.

MOTHER CHEERS DAUGHTER HELD IN MATE'S DEATH

FRANKLIN, Pa. (P)—A 21-year-old Filipino woman charged with slaying her husband seems in better spirits since her mother arrived from the Philippines.

Mrs. Lydia Dean and her mother, Mrs. Eugenia Deen of Baguio City in the Philippines, were reunited Saturday at the Venango County Jail following Mrs. Deen's arrival in this country. It was the first they had seen each other in about four years.

"She seems much better now—much brighter," said Sheriff J. E. Cunningham last night in describing Mrs. Deen's reaction to her mother's visit. "She's taking more and a little louder. When she first came here she talked quietly. Now she's talking much more and better."

Visit In Jail
Mrs. Deen and her granddaughter, Phyllis, 3, visited Mrs. Deen at the jail again yesterday. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Flick of Pleasantville who are caring for Phyllis.

Mrs. Deen, Phyllis and the Flicks later had dinner at the home of Mrs. Flora Karien of Franklin where Mrs. Deen is staying.

Mrs. Deen is accused of killing her 29-year-old husband, Air Force T.Sgt. Ronald Dean, last Dec. 7 in his parents' home at Pleasantville.

IRVIN HORN DIES
HANOVER, Pa. (P)—Irvin Horn, operator of a chain of ladies apparel stores, died at his home here Saturday. He was 58.

Horn operated the Hubbs Stores chain, which has shops in Hanover, Chambersburg, Carlisle, Waynesboro, Shippensburg and Hagerstown, Md.

YOUNGSTERTOPS GOLF TOURNEY IN LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES (P)—The men have been separated from the boys in the $35,000 Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament.

And, of all things, Gay Brewer Jr., 25, a comparative youngster on the tourney trail, leads by a stroke in today's final scramble for the $7,000 first-place money.

The field was cut to 76 for fourth round play, with scores of 221 or lower qualifying. Brewer climaxed a brilliant third round by dropping a 15-foot putt on the 18th hole.

A loud roar exploded from the gallery when the ball plunked home, giving the husky young pro a brilliant 67, and 207 for 54 holes. His total was a stroke better than Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio who also turned in a 67.

E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, second-round leader by two strokes, turned in a par 71 over the 7,100-yard Rancho course. He had a 209 total.

Tied at 210 were Billy Casper, Apple Valley, Calif., with a 68, and 22-year-old Tommy Jacobs, Whittier, Calif., with a 70.

At 211 were Canada's Al Baiding, with a 68, and Bo Winingier, Odessa, Tex., 70.

Young Brewer, who hails from Lexington, Ky., but plays out of Cincinnati, began in fine fashion. His chip shots and putts, as he later admitted, were never better.

He dropped putts up to 18 feet as he picked up five birdies.

Brewer, who wasn't yet born when the veteran Harrison began his professional career, has won about every amateur laurel in Kentucky. In 1949 he was the national junior champion. He is relatively unknown in professional play.

U.S. STANDING AS WORLD POWER IS TV SHOW TOPIC

NEW YORK (P)—An absorbing 90-minute television examination of "Where We Stand" in relation to Soviet Russia as a world power was presented last night on CBS-TV.

A realistic examination of the facts by the CBS news staff resulted in these conclusions: Militarily we lag at least two years behind Russia in the capacity to wage intercontinental nuclear war. We have great capacities, but we face economic sacrifices and the necessity of changed attitudes if we are to achieve parity with the Russians.

We are almost totally apathetic to the problems of civilian defense—but so, too, are the Russians. Most important, we must re-examine our entire educational system if we hope to remain a first-class power in the age of the satellites.

The forthright appraisal of "Where We Stand" conducted by Walter Cronkite, Howard K. Smith, Alexander Kendrick and CBS Moscow correspondent Daniel Schorr was an important TV public service to all citizens willing to look, listen and think.

No New Answers
Well conducted interviews with generals, admirals, scientists and educators did not bring any new answers to current widely discussed questions. Nevertheless, television has a dramatic impact on many persons who are inclined to ignore the printed word.

A filmed report on a missile plant in California lucidly explained many of the problems in that complex field. Direct interviews with persons in a typical American town—Morris Plains, N.J.—revealed the general American apathy to the civilian defense program more dramatically than thousands of descriptive words.

AUDIT OF PIKE BOOKS IS NEAR
HARRISBURG (P)—Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith plans to audit the books of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission soon.

He said in a weekend statement that a new law permitted him to do so and that he had notified acting commission chairman James F. Byrnes.

Cagers Start Real Battle For District, Region Titles

HARRISBURG (P)—With an eye on district and regional crowns, Pennsylvania scholastic basketball teams begin league play for keeps this week.

Since late November major teams have engaged in tourneys, exhibitions and other non-league games, but the regular season for most of them opens this week. A handful of leagues started last week.

This is the situation by regions: Dist. 6—Insiders say Altoona has lost strength, but not enough to keep it out of the district playoffs. Powerful Westmont, which won the Tri-County title last season, upended Altoona 76-73 Friday.

Some experts point to Portage, district runner-up last year, as the team to watch.

Johnstown, while it dumped Ferndale 59-54 Friday, is regarded as considerably weaker than last season.

District Seven
Dist. 7—Until a stronger team in Sect. III shows otherwise, Sharon, the 1957 state champion, is the

VEJAR TO MEET NEWCOMER IN SAINT NICK'S

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Mickey Crawford, a fast-improving newcomer from Saginaw, Mich. and Chico Vejar, 26-year-old veteran of 89 pro fights, top the show tonight at St. Nicholas Arena in New York.

Although Vejar has been beaten by Tiger Jones, Joey Giambra, Joey Giardello and Gene Fullmer in his campaign against "name" middleweights, he figures to be a tough test for Crawford.

Vejar has been weighing 150 or close to it in most of his recent stars. He was 157½ when he beat Pat Lowry in December. Crawford, 23, came in at 146 pounds when he lost to Ralph Dupas at New Orleans, Nov. 25, his only defeat in 11 bouts in 1957.

The 10-round match will be seen on television (duMont) in some sections, starting at 10 p.m.

Durrelle In Rematch
While light heavyweight champion Archie Moore boxes a non-title match in Brazil on Friday, Yvon Durrelle and Tony Anthony will be facing away in a rematch at Madison Square Garden.

Durrelle, a former man from Baie St. Anne, New Brunswick, is ranked No. 2 among the contenders by the National Boxing Assn. and No. 3 by Ring Magazine. Anthony, a knockout victim in a September "try for the title, is No. 3 with NBA and No. 4 in Ring.

Their previous meeting, June 14, was called a draw although many thought Durrelle had the edge. Anthony had just earned a championship match by knocking out Chuck Spieser in Detroit when he ran in to the tough Canadian.

The Durrelle-Anthony bout will be covered by network (NBC) radio and television.

Hart Vs. Baker
Sugar Hart of Philadelphia and Larry Baker of Mount Vernon, N. Y., two ranking welters, provide the Wednesday entertainment at Chicago Stadium (ABC-TV).

Hart, only 21, was called the "new Sugar Ray" until he was beaten in the Garden by Walter Byars last spring. He whipped Willie Stevenson and Al Wilson in subsequent bouts but was stopped by Virgil Atkins and held to a draw by Charley Cotton in his last two outings.

Baker beat Ray Perez and Gaspar Ortega before he became a TKO victim of Vince Martinez in September.

COLLEGE STARS, SUMMER BALL UP FOR STUDY

By HUGH FULLERTON
PHILADELPHIA (P)—After thinking things over for two days, National Collegiate Athletic Assn. leaders have not come up with a red-hot subject for their 52nd annual meeting this week — but college baseball men may provide a good one.

The American Assn. of College Baseball Coaches is the first of a half-dozen groups of college sports leaders to meet here in the annual mid-winter sessions. They have pulled back from their strong stand of last year over signing college players to professional contracts, but they still are stirred up about that question and about summer baseball.

Principal baseball question to be settled here is how far the summer leagues can go in paying college players before they lose their amateur status. A proposal considered Friday night by the AACBC executive committee put a limit of $325 a month plus certain expense allowances.

Must Vote Acceptance
Before that figure can be agreed upon the coaches and the NCAA will have to vote on its acceptance. The vote probably will not be held before the NCAA business session on Wednesday.

Meanwhile the baseball coaches are preparing another blast at the major leagues about signing college players before their eligibility is used up. They admit they have no big squawk when a player is offered a huge bonus—$25,000 or more—but they think college players who aren't worth such big payments should be allowed to stay in school for the full four-year period.

Another main problem of the college athletic leaders is "red-shirting," the practice of holding college athletes, usually football players, out of intercollegiate competition for one season while they gain experience fighting on scrub teams.

The big ten and Ivy Leagues now have ruled out this practice by limiting competition.

The compressed NCAA convention program also includes discussions Monday on summer baseball, observation of coaches contracts, and various good and bad features of intercollegiate athletics.

Waynesboro Puts Perfect Record On Line Against Warriors Here Tuesday

QUINN READY FOR CONTRACT WORK FOR '58

MILWAUKEE (P)—Thin, sharp-faced John Quinn, general manager of the Milwaukee Braves doesn't resemble Saint Claus, but he'll probably discover in contract talks that his world champions expect him to act like one.

Braves contracts will be mailed at the end of the week.

"I just don't know what to say," Quinn commented when asked whether he expected difficulty in signing up his players. "You never can tell until the time comes."

It's Different Now
Quinn noted that the club had little trouble signing players after the Braves won the National League pennant in 1948, but he admitted the situation was different now.

"We had a flock of veterans who were nearing the end of their careers in 1948," he said. "Now we're dealing with young players on their way up. They're the kind who figure to get pretty good increases."

Will Want Bonuses
In this category are Wes Covington and Frank Torre, second-year men who had good seasons, and Bob Harp and Don McMahon.

Then there are Hank Aaron, NL's Most Valuable Player; Sedes hero Lew Burdette; Red Schoendienst; Johnny Logan; Eddie Mathews; Bob Buhl; and Warren Spahn.

Aaron and Burdette received about $28,000 apiece last season. It's safe to assume that Aaron will ask for $40,000 and Burdette $35,000. Spahn, in the $50,000 bracket, was the highest paid Brave last year. Schoendienst made around $40,000. Both, no doubt, will want more.

2 PLAYERS FACE FIGHT PENALTY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Two veterans and perhaps other players today faced possible punishment by National Basketball Assn. President Maurice Podoloff as the result of a free-for-all at St. Louis.

Joe Holup of Detroit and Charley Share of St. Louis were tossed out of Sunday afternoon's game, won by the Hawks 85-93, by Referee Mendy Rudolph after a fight that also involved other players on both teams.

The victory permitted the Hawks to retain their nine-game lead in the western division over the Cincinnati Royals, who edged the New York Knicks 101-100. Syracuse's Nats chalked up their second straight over the weekend. They beat Boston 115-106 Saturday and Philadelphia yesterday 111-96. The Warriors also lost Saturday, dropping a 81-78 decision to Detroit.

Boston, however, remained 5½ games in front of Syracuse in the eastern division by downing the hapless Minneapolis Lakers 113-100 Sunday.

Navy, Irish May Battle In Philly

BALTIMORE (P)—The 1960 Navy-Notre Dame football game in all likelihood will be played in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium. Capt. Slade Cutter, Naval Academy athletic director, announced yesterday that the University of Pennsylvania had removed the last apparent obstacle to switching the game from Baltimore.

Pennsylvania agreed to a home-and-home series with Navy starting in 1960, when the Quakers will play in Annapolis, Cutter said.

Undefeated Waynesboro (5-0), rated as one of the top contenders for the South Penn Basketball League title, comes here Tuesday evening to battle the Gettysburg High cagers.

Russ Hopewell, 6-1 senior, who finished second in the league scoring last year with 325 points, is the big scoring ace the Warriors will have to contain if they are to stop the invaders. Hopewell has been the sparkplug again this season and is reported better than ever.

Like Gettysburg, Waynesboro is lacking in height. In addition to Hopewell, Fritz Carbaugh, also 6-1, is the only regular going over the six-foot mark.

Bob Keller and Gene Eakle, both 5-7, and Carl Rudy 5-11, are expected to round out that starting lineup for Coach George Gottshall's outfit.

Take Two SP Wins
In their first two league games Waynesboro triumphed at Mechanicsburg 59-37 and then polished off invading Hanover 68-62 last Friday.

George Forney's Warriors (2-3) have been coming along nicely and gave their best performance at Middletown last week before bowing 54-51. Another similar exhibition Tuesday could well provide an upset.

One of the largest crowds of the season is expected to be on hand as several hundred Waynesboro backers are planning to attend.

The junior varsity game will start at 6:45.

Three other league games are scheduled for Tuesday. Middletown will play at Chambersburg, Carlisle at Hanover, and Hershey at Mechanicsburg.

County League Games
A pair of Adams County League games will be played Tuesday evening. Biglerville begins defense of its regular season title by hosting Big Spring, 49-35 victim of Bermudian on Friday while Bermudian goes after its second straight at Fairfield where the home club will be playing its opening league affair.

Junior High Away
Gettysburg Junior High, winners over Delone in their opener here Friday, travels to Waynesboro for its first South Penn Junior High League game on Tuesday. Chambersburg played at Washington Twp. in the other loop battle.

Delone Catholic also inaugurates league activity against Bishop McDevitt High at Harrisburg in a Central Pennsylvania Catholic League game.

INDIANS QUIT CELLAR OF AHL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Springfield Indians are out of the American Hockey League cellar and bidding for fourth and last playoff position.

While the top four teams—Hershey, Cleveland, Providence and Buffalo—were splitting two week-end games and the Rochester Americans were dropping a pair, the Indians won two.

The Indians defeated Rochester 7-4 Saturday night and then turned back Cleveland 4-3 last night to move a point ahead of the Americans and a point back of Buffalo.

The Bisons split a pair with the league-leading Hershey Bears, winning 7-4 on their home ice last night after dropping a 4-3 overtime decision at Hershey Saturday. The Barons whipped Providence 7-2 Saturday and then the Reds defeated the Americans 7-2 last night.

HILLARY AND HIS PARTY DINE ON NAVY BEANS

By RENNIE TAYLOR
U.S. SOUTH POLE STATION (P)—Sir Edmund Hillary and his band of New Zealanders feasted on Navy beans and hot dogs Saturday after completing their trek to the South Pole over 1,200 miles of snow and ice.

The 38-year-old conqueror of Mt. Everest pulled into the American scientific station Saturday after camping in sight of it Friday night with tractor gasoline left for only 20 more miles.

The five-man band was the first to make it overland from the coast in 46 years. Later trips to the Pole, including the ones that set up the 17-man station here, have been by air.

Oil Drums At Bottom
Navy Lt. Vernon Houk, military commander of the station, and scientific leader Palle Mogensen went out to meet Hillary in a snow tractor. "Glad to be here," the rangy New Zealand beekeeper told them.

The Americans led the New Zealand caravan of three tractors two miles to the spot which U.S. scientists compute as the geographic bottom of the world. It is encircled by oil drums.

The group stopped to look at it, but Hillary did not step inside the circle. Then they went to the station mess hall for their first hot meal in several days.

Await British Party
The four New Zealanders who accompanied Hillary are Murray Ellis, Peter Mulgrew, Jim Bates and Derek Wright. Their party made a forced march of 70 miles in 24 hours to arrive in sight of the U.S. base.

Hillary is now awaiting the ar-

Youth Fails To Survive Operation

PHILADELPHIA (P)—A young California boy on Friday failed to survive a heart operation seeking to prolong his life.

Dale Drake, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn R. Drake, Fresno, Calif., died of what Hahnemann Hospital officials called "congestive heart failure."

A hospital spokesman said Dale had held a slender grasp on life because of a hole between the lower chambers of the heart.

During the operation, performed by Dr. Charles Bailey, widely-known heart specialist and head of Hahnemann's department of thoracic surgery, the boy's heart was by-passed by a heart-lung machine, primed with 11 pints of blood.

The spokesman said the boy died shortly after blood began flowing through the boy's heart again when the machine was switched off.

GUARDED TRAIN DERAILED TODAY

BUFFALO, N. Y. (P)—A Nickel Plate Railroad freight train, including four cars guarded by armed agents of the Atomic Energy Commission, was partially derailed here Saturday. No one was injured.

Capt. K. L. Chapman of the railroad police said the four cars contained enough explosive "to blow up western New York." But the cargo was not further identified.

The four guarded cars remained upright. Officials declined rival of a British party led by Dr. Vivian Fuchs, who set out on a trek across the frozen continent from the opposite side at Shackleton Base below South America.

GRAY-HAIRED WOMAN ROBBED LETTER BOXES

NEWARK, N.J. (P)—A motherly gray-haired woman, known by many policemen as secretary-treasurer of the Suburban Police Bowling League, is accused of stealing a half ton of mail from letter boxes.

Police said Miss Doran King, 58, admitted on Friday she had looted boxes in the Weequahic section of Newark for the past four months.

But postal inspectors and police said they found enough mail in her four-room apartment to fill 14 cartons, some of it dating back to 1956. Much of it was unopened.

Miss King said she could give no reason for her actions but is sorry to have embarrassed so many of her police friends.

"That's why I'm so ashamed of myself," she said. "The cops trusted me and I let them down."

HOLDUP PAIR CHASED BY 2 IRATE WOMEN

MERCED, Calif. (P)—Two men told Merced County Sheriff John Latorraca they are thankful to be alive in jail after two free-swinging women beat one and chased off the other from a holdup attempt in a bar.

Latorraca said Louis Walter Winchester, 35, and Paul Greer, 37, told him they entered Ernie's Bar Thursday night and related:

on security grounds to discuss their contents.

The cause of the derailment was not immediately determined.

The 99-car freight was headed for Buffalo from St. Louis and Peoria, Ill., when 32 cars left the tracks.

About 100 pigs in shipment were let loose from one of the derailed cars. Erie County authorities rushed in to help railroad men round up the squealing porkers.

DEATHS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
DANVILLE, Ill. (P)—Walter C. Lindley, 77, federal judge for 36 years and the jurist who in 1946 found the A&P food chain guilty of antitrust law violations, died Friday. He presided in the Eastern District of Illinois at Danville from 1922 until 1949 when he was appointed to the 7th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at Chicago.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (P)—Maj. Gen. Lloyd E. Jones, 68, considered instrumental in designing the 105 millimeter howitzer, basic Army artillery field piece of World War II, died Friday. An authority on artillery tactics, Jones was author of a basic textbook on artillery, "Field Artillery Applied Mathematics."

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—Will Aubrey, 64, widely known entertainer and humorist and friend of notables the world over, died Friday. For years he had top vaudeville bookings in the English speaking world, and although he had a law degree, he never practiced law.

Drinking water is an increasing problem in the U.S. In Texas in 1957 drinking water was sold in some communities at 50 cents a gallon.

"This is a holdup," Winchester said, leveling a revolver at Mrs. Frank Zimmerman, who operates the inn with her husband.

Freely Admit Guilt
Mrs. Zimmerman reached beneath the counter and came up swinging a heavy club. She struck Winchester over the temple, smashed him in the face and took another swing at the head. Greer fled.

Mrs. Mickie Elankenship, a patron, grabbed Winchester's gun and started after him.

Winchester managed to retrieve the revolver as he ran to the car. A few minutes later the two were arrested on a highway.

Latorraca said the two men freely admitted their attempted holdup.

Russia Sputniks To Influence Course Of Congress Session

By RICHARD WESLEY
WASHINGTON (P)—A returning Congress will begin grappling on Tuesday with problems which have loomed menacingly since it adjourned last summer.

Russia's Sputniks, with their grave implication of breakthroughs in the science of rocket and missile warfare, are certain to influence greatly the course of the 1958 session.

What the United States must do—and how much it can afford to pay—to match the Soviet scientific strides will be the No. 1 topic on Capitol Hill.

Message Thursday
President Eisenhower will deliver a 30-minute State of the Union message to a joint session of the House and Senate on Thursday. It will deal primarily with the condition of the nation's defenses and the improvement needed.

On Jan. 13, Eisenhower will present his budget proposals, reportedly nudging 74 billion dollars for another peacetime record, for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Administration officials say the budget will be a balanced one, perhaps just barely, with military and other defense needs expected to push domestic projects into the background.

40 Millions For Defense
Defense spending apparently will hover around 40 billion dollars next year, compared to a current spending level of 38½ billions. The administration also will seek another billion dollars for defense for the current fiscal year ending June 30.

Congress will be asked to approve a four-year, billion dollar aid-to-education program stressing science and mathematics.

It's an election year. With seats of all 435 House members and 32 senators at stake, political infighting is not likely to diminish. Few members are expected to give up pet domestic projects without a gan J. Bennett last September. Bennet was stricken with a heart attack while attending a wild life conference in Las Vegas, Nev. Golden had been his deputy.

The Commission also reelected its officers at Friday's meeting. C. Elwood Huffman, Marshall's Creek, remained as president; Andrew C. Long, Shamokin, will continue as vice president, and Dewey H. Miller, Bedford, as secretary.

The commission also set tentative opening dates, subject to its final decision in July, for the 1958 bag limits also will be set at the July meeting.

The season on rails and gallinules would open the fall hunting, Sept. 1. Doves would become legal game on Sept. 10, followed by a special archers' deer season, Oct. 4.

The season on ducks, geese, coots, brant, woodcock and jack-snipes was proposed for opening Oct. 15.

Small Game Season
Oct. 25 was suggested as the date for the small game season, which includes wild turkeys, ruffed grouse, gray, black and fox squirrels, cottontail rabbits, ring-necked pheasants and bob-white quails.

The opening of the bear season was tentatively marked for Nov. 24 with the antlered deer season opening Dec. 1. The season on snowshoe hare would close the year, starting Dec. 27.

Federal approval must be granted for the opening dates of the migratory game bird seasons.

OLD CHRISTMAS COMES LATE TO RODANTHE, N. C.

RODANTHE, N.C. (P)—A little earlier than usual, but considerably later than for people on the mainland, Christmas came Saturday to this fishing community on North Carolina's outer banks.

It came a day early this year because Jan. 5, traditionally the date for Rodanthe to observe Old Christmas, falls on a Sunday.

Why the holiday comes late no one knows exactly. The community actually celebrates the usual Christmas Day on Dec. 25, but also has kept Old Christmas for many years. Some say this is because of Epiphany, also known as "Little Christmas," the time when the Wise Men visited the Christ Child in Bethlehem.

Others say the Old Christmas observance originated with the changeover in mid-18th century from the Julian to the Gregorian calendar, which saw 11 days disposed of.

Anyway, children were regaled Saturday night with more gifts and candies and visits from Santa Claus and from Old Buck, legendary wild bull who now rolls in for the ceremonies on roller bearings. There will be an oyster roast too, led by Rodanthe natives Mr. and Mrs. John Herbert.

ACCENT SHIFTS TO SELLING IN INDUSTRY IN '58

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The accent has bounced from production to selling.

In most industries today there is plenty of capacity to produce and plenty of raw materials at hand. A number of factories, mills and mines are operating on schedules much more leisurely than a year ago.

This is the year of sales effort for them aimed at beating the other fellow to orders from fabricators, middlemen and merchants.

Inventories In Line
The position of individual stores depends both on how well they sold their goods before Christmas and on how they ordered last fall. But, in general, retail inventories seem to be fairly well in line.

Although final figures aren't in, belated Christmas shopping appears to have brought total retail volume for the year to the 200 billion dollar mark for the first time. Higher prices this year make any gain in unit volume look doubtful.

The merchant who ordered cautiously last fall and sold in good volume just before Christmas doesn't seem to be hurting. But his problem now seems to be one of luring the consumer out of the careful penny mood into which he is falling.

Harder To Pry Loose
The retailer is likely to find himself in the middle this year in another way. Manufacturers' salesmen will be pestering him more than ever to display their products rather than those of a rival factory. Some close and hard deals are likely to be turned this year.

On the other side, the merchant must fight harder than ever to keep ahead of his own rival down the street.

Personal income may be still near the peak. But, pinched by the high cost of living and aware of idle production capacity, consumers are proving harder to pry loose from their money. And they are fast on their feet today in comparing prices at different stores and in haggling for a bargain.

The Silver Lining
The silver lining to this for business is the opportunity offered to the smart merchandiser and to the advertising man with savvy.

But doesn't keep the merchant from being in another bind, this time between the shopper wary of price boosts and the steady rise in his own costs.

To squeeze out, he'll have to learn how to get more sales per employee and more display and sales volume per square foot of costly store space.

Artist's Window Unchanged But His View Keeps Changing

By DIAL TORGERSON
LAGUNA BEACH, Calif. (AP) — From the view window of his cliff-top home, R. Stephens Wright can look 40 feet down and see fish darting back and forth in the crystal-clear waters at Laguna Beach.

From his desert home 100 miles away he views the panorama they call Palm Springs—the desert, the mountains, the Joshua trees—across a landscaped courtyard where a fountain bubbles in the cool night air.

Wright is a nationally known portrait artist. He has wealth and social position. There's nothing unusual about the fact that he has two vacation homes.

But here's what is unusual: They're both the same home. It's a trailer.

In Social Register
Wright is one of the four million Americans who live in trailers all or part of the time. Of course he isn't typical—he's listed in both the national and Southern California social registers, and few society types are trailerites. But then, among trailer folk, who is typical?

They have more in common with the small than they do with one another. They come from all social and economic strata, and a trailer park cross section would show as many different people as you'd find, say, in a big apartment house. They have this in common: They wear their homes like fancy coats, and take them anywhere they like.

Wright, for instance, spends the summer in his 36-footer at Treasure Island, a fashionable but not exclusive park on the bluffs at Laguna Beach, some 50 miles south of Los Angeles.

Moves Home In Winter
When the first cold wind of winter blows in off the Pacific, Wright calls a trailer moving firm. For $50 they move his home 100 miles to winter quarters at Palm Springs' Skyridge park, where trailers are parked in four-home squares around fancy courtyards.

Wright has enough money to keep the trailer for vacations and weekends—his permanent home is Pasadena. But there are many Southern Californians of modest means who could afford to be his trailer-park neighbor.

"The space costs me $75 a month at Laguna and $55 a month at Palm Springs," said Wright. "Of course, in Palm Springs I have to chip in to help pay the gardner who takes care of the courtyard."

Trailer Costs $4,000
A trailer like Wright's costs about $4,000. There are 220,000 such "mobile homes" in California alone—some 1,225,000 in use across the country. Some Treasure Island trailers have $4,000 cabanas attached and boast color television.

Wright says his trailer's greatest convenience is its lack of a telephone. Between portrait jobs—he does about a dozen a year—he likes a place to relax.

"A friend of mine on Long Island in New York has a 67-foot yacht," Wright adds. "And he doesn't have half the room in that I have here." He waved his hand about the wood-paneled 35-footer. "I've got head room, too—there isn't anything to bump your head on, like there is in a boat."

Has Four Beaches
"Of course, my friend's yacht is made for racing. And I'm not racing anybody."

The Laguna Beach park where Wright summers has four beaches. The Palm Springs park has a swimming pool. But so do most of the trailer parks being built now in Southern California.

According to the Trailer Coach Assn., a national trailer boosting group, there are 41,000 parks nationally and 2,500 in Southern California. More than a third of those have pools, recreation halls and all the other earmarks of "luxury" trailer parks. Nearly all the new ones being built in temperate climates also have pools—bringing their total cost to an average $300,000.

The oldtime trailer parks are disappearing—the unpaved lots where central plumbing facilities took care of everyone, and lighting came from bare bulbs strung from trees.

Wright said that when he first bought a trailer his wife, a Pasadena clubwoman, was horrified. "She said she wouldn't be caught dead in a trailer park," said Wright. "But I guess I oversold it. Now I can't get her out."

3 AMERICAN MOTHERS GO INTO RED CHINA

HONG KONG (AP)—Three American mothers crossed apprehensively into Red China today to visit their imprisoned sons—almost three years after the Communists first invited them to come.

The three mothers are: Mrs. Mary Downey, New Britain, Conn., mother of John Downey, 27. He is serving a life term. She is accompanied by her 25-year-old son William.

Mrs. Ruth Redmond, Yonkers, N. Y., mother of 38-year-old Hugh Redmond, whom she has not seen for 11 years. He also has been sentenced to life in prison.

Mrs. Philip Pecteau, Lynn, Mass., mother of Richard Pecteau, 30, sentenced to 20 years.

They are the first Americans to make a nonofficial visit to Red China with State Department sanction since the Korean War. U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld was accompanied by his American aide William Ranallo on his 1955 mission to Peking.

Another American, Los Angeles

day. The card was mailed in Logan, Utah, in 1947, to Beverly, Mrs. Collins doesn't know where it has traveled in the past 10 years. After some deep thought she remembered Wayne. He didn't show up that Friday.

The now mother of three sighed: "My husband says I'm worth more than a penny."

Atty. A. J. Wirin, crossed the small bridge into Red China shortly after the mothers. Traveling separately, he is seeking information to defend John Powell, a Shanghai newspaper editor who is now charged with sedition. The judge told the government he would dismiss the case unless Wirin was allowed to gather information in Red China.

Invited In 1955

On Jan. 21, 1955, the Communists first invited the mothers to visit their sons, who are imprisoned on spy charges. The State Department refused to let them go under its policy of banning all travel to Red China by U. S. citizens because the United States has no diplomatic relations with the Peiping regime.

The department suddenly relented last month, about three weeks after Wirin got his passport.

Redmond was a businessman in Shanghai. Downey and Pecteau were aboard a plane shot down during the Korean War and were accused by the Chinese of dropping supplies to anti-Communist guerrillas in Manchuria. They were civilian employees of the Army, which has denied the charges against them.

The group was processed through Chinese customs in a speedy 20 minutes. They were greeted formally by Communist officers in full uniform and listened quietly while an immigration officer read a statement saying: "We are sorry you went to so much trouble. Your government wants to make two Chinas. This is not your fault."

Although the women had told newsmen in Tokyo that they were not afraid to venture into Communist China, they admitted they were nervous and anxious as they headed for Canton to make contact with the Chinese Red Cross.

"I'm sure Dick will be surprised," said Mrs. Pecteau. "I'm not sure he knows I'm coming." Asked whether she would attempt to see Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai to plead for her sons' release, Mrs. Downey replied: "No comment. I'm his mother."

Mrs. Redmond brought a homemade sweater and woolen socks. Each carried a carton of cigarettes, and Mrs. Downey had some fudge, fruit cake and chocolates.

MORE ROCK 'N' ROLL IN 1958, HE PREDICTS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—What does 1958 promise in popular music? More rock 'n' roll, I'm afraid, but there are some hopeful signs, too. This is according to Randy Woods, founder and president of Dot Records, and he's a man who should know.

Randy is the soft-spoken Southern boy who parlayed a record store in Gallatin, Tenn., into a releasing company which was sold to Paramount Pictures for 3 million dollars. He is still the head of Dot and last year piloted the firm to the highest sales of pop records in the industry.

"I figure we have sold between 17 and 18 million units in 1957, compared to 14 million the year before," Randy reported. "From all I can gather, 1958 is going to be an even bigger year for the industry."

Bearing Gifts "I'm sure Dick will be surprised," said Mrs. Pecteau. "I'm not sure he knows I'm coming."

Asked whether she would attempt to see Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai to plead for her sons' release, Mrs. Downey replied: "No comment. I'm his mother."

Mrs. Redmond brought a homemade sweater and woolen socks. Each carried a carton of cigarettes, and Mrs. Downey had some fudge, fruit cake and chocolates.

perity, the ever-growing teen-age market for pop records, plus the growth of hi-fi among the older folks.

I asked Randy what the new year will bring in the way of music.

Rock 'N' Roll Not New

"There will be more rock 'n' roll," he predicted. "Actually, rock 'n' roll is nothing new; it's the same thing that my generation enjoyed—Artie Shaw, Benny Goodman and even Glenn Miller in pieces like 'In the Mood.'"

"At least 50 per cent of the records will be rock 'n' roll or at least some kind of music with a beat. If grown-ups would buy single records, the situation would be different. Then we could do numbers with wait tempo and other slow music that grown-ups like."

"But it's the teen-agers who buy pop records today. What they want is music with a beat, so we give it to them."

New Talent Likely

The situation is not all grim for us oldsters, however. Ballads can also make the grade today, as evidenced by last year's big sellers—Debbie Reynolds' "Tammy" and Pat Boone's "Love Letters in the Sand."

Will Dot continue to present celebrities who have not previously been pop singers?

"Absolutely," he replied. "We've had very good luck in that line. I don't think there is any more consistent seller among the girl singers than Gale Storm, who had never before done any records. We also had fine results with Tab Hunter, who took a beating from the critics but managed to sell 2 million records with 'Young Love.'"

ROAD CRASHES TAKE 10 LIVES OVER WEEKEND

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Highway accidents claimed at least ten lives in Pennsylvania over the weekend. At least three other persons died in fires and a man was killed by a train.

Two were killed in a head-on crash at an underpass at Duryea, Pa., last night. The victims were identified as Mrs. Nancy Yuhas, 19, of Avoca, and Reno Gopozucca, 43, Pittston. Mrs. Yuhas' sister, Patricia Borthwick, 11, was injured critically in the crash.

In another head-on collision at Prompton, last night, Albert T. Nichols, 34, Beachlake, Wayne County, was injured fatally and Edward Devitt, 28, Rahway, N. J., was hurt seriously.

A fire in downtown Berwick Saturday caused the death of Harris

Brown, 61, who leaped from his hotel window and was killed. Another man is still missing in the blaze.

Chapin Morris, 52, died in a fire which swept his father's home in Bradford, while Jerome Fisher, perished in a blaze that wrecked his shed home near Ephrata. Both fires were on Sunday.

George F. Fleck of Harrisburg was killed by a Pennsylvania Railroad train near his home Sunday. A freak accident claimed the life of Earl C. Coalmer, 29, of Dixonville. He died Sunday of injuries suffered when he fell from the locked bumpers of two automobiles.

A car plunged off a bridge and fell 40 feet to the bank of a creek near Pittsburgh Sunday, killing Albert Sandstrom, 55, of Greentree.

Two children, Douglas Baskins, 6, of Duke Center, and Martha Lloyd, 3, of Haverford, were killed in traffic mishaps near their home Saturday.

Council Finance Committee Authorized To Handle Stahle And Eichelberger Bequests

The funds set up by the Henry J. Stahle and the Henry Eichelberger will more than a half century ago to help the needy of the community will resume their function after having been increased by the addition of interest accrued during a period when the income from both funds was not distributed.

(Both funds now total $8,528.75.)
Gettysburg borough council Monday evening turned the funds over to the finance committee, after councilmen admitted that they had overlooked the amounts for almost five years.

During the years the late D. C. Stallsmith was in charge of the fund at the direction of council, the interest from the two funds was distributed annually in the form of clothing, food, coal and grants of cash. Between $80 and $120 of the interest on the approximately $6,700 in the two funds was spent yearly.

Queries Raise Issue
When Mr. Stallsmith died, no successor was immediately appointed, and the funds forgotten.

During the holidays when distribution of the income from the two funds was again raised no one knew what to do and disposition of the money could not be made.

Mahlon P. Hartzell Sr., chairman of council's finance committee, was asked to determine legal disposition of the funds. Council's minute of March 6, 1894, showed that the Eichelberger will provided a bequest of $3,500 to be used as a sum for the needy of the borough, the interest to be spent each year to help them. A short time later council received $3,325 from the estate and that became the original Eichelberger fund. The minutes in 1903 showed that the will of Henry J. Stahle also set up a fund, the interest from which was to be used for the needy of the borough.

2 Amounts In 1903
The minutes for 1903 also reveal that the town received two amounts during the year from the Stahle

DEADLINE ON PERSONAL TAX RETURNS FEB. 1

Approximately 1,000 Adams county residents, who normally pay about $33,000 county personal property tax on more than $8,000,000 worth of stocks, mortgages, bonds, etc., will have two weeks longer this year to file their returns.

The Adams County commissioners today announced that county residents, who last year paid $33,400 to the county on the four-mill tax on $8,353,228 worth of personal property, this year must file their returns by February 1. Normally the returns are to be made by January 15, either to the county commissioners' office at the court house, or to the local assessors. The extension was granted to the taxpayers because the assessors this year do not take their oath of office until this evening, at which time they will receive their instructions and supplies at a special meeting to be held at the court house at 7:30 o'clock.

The personal property tax is based on stocks, bonds, mortgages, judgments, notes, articles of agreement, etc., which are assessed for county personal property tax. While the taxpayer must file this return by February 1, the tax will not be paid (Continued On Page 7)

Auditors Select

POSTPONE MEETING
The January meeting of the Adams County Historical Society will not be held this evening, the regular date, but will be held next Tuesday, President W. E. Tilberg said today. The postponement was made because of the Union Week of Prayer services being held this week.

LEGION PLANS FOR '58 ESSAY CONTEST HERE

Plans for the annual American Legion essay contest were outlined Monday evening at a meeting of the Albert J. Lentz Post at its home on Baltimore St.

Lawrence M. Sheads, essay chairman, reported plans to meet with principals of the various schools of the county in the near future to seek their suggestions and cooperation in the annual contest. Sponsored by the Legion posts for many years locally, the contest in recent years had also included a special college entrance examination given the top winners in the essay contest, to determine the one to be awarded the scholarship award in connection with the contest. Cash prizes are also awarded the writers of the best essays.

Commander John Guise named Richard Fox and Dorsey Rebert as representatives from the post to the Adams County Home Auxiliary.

Receive Members
Vice Commander Harold W. Culp announced plans of the membership committee to promote membership among men who had belonged in 1955 and 1956 and had not rejoined. Present membership was reported at 595. Five new members were accepted into the post: Paul Wakefield, Barlow St.; Glenn F. Carbaugh, Arendtsville; Stewart R. Tait, Lincolnway East; Harold Thomas Riley, York Springs, and Allen R. Knipple, Gettysburg R. 3. The membership of Donald S. Vaughn Jr. was transferred from the local post to the Carlisle post.

Dr. Frederick Tilberg, post historian, was named head of a committee to arrange for preparation of a post history to be entered in a national post history contest which will close September 15.

A pamphlet on organization of Sons of American Legion posts was read.

Kremlin Silent On Report Of Man-Carrying Rocket That Sent Passenger Safely Back To Land

MOSCOW (AP)—The Kremlin kept silent today on unofficial reports that Russia has fired a man-carrying rocket about 186 miles high and got the passenger back to earth.

The official blackout aroused speculation that the rocket experiment took place a day or so after Jan. 1 and the passenger parachuted back to earth. The information did not say whether the first space traveler went all the way up with the rocket, or just how he escaped from it.

There were no hints as to the mystery traveler's identity. Many Russians have volunteered for pioneering flights into space.

New Altitude Mark
If verified, the experiment could have as much or more scientific importance than the launching of the dog-carrying Soviet satellite last fall. It would mark another Soviet triumph over the United States in the space race.

The reported altitude of 186 miles, while not high enough to escape gravity pull and put a rocket into orbit about the earth, is nearly eight times higher than any human has ever gone. The world altitude record of 126,000 feet, less than 24 miles, was set in September 1956 by U. S. Air Force Maj. Ivan Kincheloe in the X2 experimental plane.

The U. S. Air Force said recently it plans to send a man above 100 miles in a new rocket plane now being built, the X15. Kincheloe told an interviewer he

TOWN COUNCILS IN MANY PARTS OF COUNTY ELECT

The swearing in of councilmen and burgesses was a familiar sight in Adams County boroughs Monday evening as many borough bodies gathered to organize for the new year. Reports of a number of these organization sessions were compiled today.

In Bendersville James F. Wright was elected as president of council to succeed Parker Kuntz and Robert H. Orner was elected vice president. Clyde Orner was re-elected secretary and Mrs. Myrtle Lerew was named borough treasurer for another year.

Mervin I. Rice was re-appointed borough health officer for another year and Harvey Guise was named for a five-year term on the town health board.

Burgess Leighton C. Taylor gave the oath of office to Councilmen Nelson P. Kane, Lloyd P. Bream and Mr. Rice. Robert Orner was prevented by illness from being present for the oath-taking.

These committee assignments were made: Water, Mr. Kuntz, Ward B. Delap and Robert Orner; street and light, Lloyd Bream, Mr. Rice and Mr. Kane, and finance, Mr. Delap, Mr. Kuntz and Mr. Kane. Bigham and Raffensperger were re-elected as borough solicitors.

The council directed Chester Ogden, the chief of police, to break up illegal parking practices in the borough. The violations complained of include angle parking, parking on the wrong side of the street, along yellow lines and at fire hydrants.

Arendtsville Tax Fixed
At Arendtsville the organization meeting of the borough council saw the election of William Guise as the new president to succeed Fred Baltzley. Paul B. Burgoon was named vice president and council continued Lawrence E. Myers in the office of borough secretary. Raymond Mayer was re-elected town treasurer.

Council set the 1958 tax rate at 14 mills, the same rate as in 1957. The new burgess, Herbert Cluck, who succeeded E. D. Bushman and had taken his oath of office earlier in the day from Arnold Orner, gave the oath of office to these newly elected councilmen: Roy Nelson and John Stover, and Paul Burgoon

FIREMEN OKAY EXEMPTION ON PA. SALES TAX

The Adams County Firemen's Association, meeting Monday evening at the Arendtsville National Bank, unanimously approved a proposed bill which would free fire companies, churches and similar charitable and religious organizations from the three per cent sales tax.

The bill, as prepared by Assemblyman Francis Worley, was read to the 50 delegates from 17 fire companies throughout the county by Secretary Donald Sneeringer.

It was decided to have Secretary Sneeringer mimeograph the proposed bill and send copies to all fire companies in the county for the suggestions of the members and "as many signatures of members as possible." The mimeographed forms then will be presented to Assemblyman Worley as petitions to help advance the bill in its presentation in the state legislature.

ASK FREQUENCY CHECK

Worley had promised to prepare such a bill at the annual meeting of the county firemen's association when he was informed by firemen of the hardship imposed by the three per cent tax when fire companies are required to build fire-halls, etc.

Secretary Sneeringer said he will have copies of the proposed bill available to ministers, or heads of various charitable organizations who might wish copies.

The county association voted to ask Philip Rohrbaugh, Hanover, to make the periodic frequency checks on the radios in the various fire trucks. Eugene Murren was directed to contact Rohrbaugh to make the arrangements.

President John Mort presided at the meeting with Clarence Dearthoff giving the opening prayer and Norman Beamer, vice president of the Arendtsville Fire Company, giving the address of welcome. Edward Loeffel reported on the annual yearbook put out by the organization.

ASKS $1,089 DAMAGES
A suit started Saturday in York common pleas court asks $1,089 for Ethel M. Kumontis, York, injured in an automobile accident in York, last Sept. 1. Defendants are Kathryn and Laverne Stermer, McShers-town.

SKATER BREAKS LEG
David Cook, 21, Gardners R. 1, was treated Sunday at the Carlisle Hospital for a fractured right leg received while ice skating.

WGET To Broadcast Bullet-Navy Game

A delayed broadcast of the Gettysburg-Navy basketball game at Annapolis Wednesday afternoon will be aired over WGET Wednesday evening at 7:25 o'clock.

Most of the college games are scheduled for broadcasts during the remainder of the season. Robert Kenworthy and Pete Cockshaw, both students at Gettysburg College, will do the descriptions with the former handling the play-by-play. Thursday's tilt at Johns Hopkins will not be broadcast.

WOMAN PASTOR TALKS AT PRAYER SERVICE MONDAY

"Prayer is the key to Heaven, and faith unlocks the door," Rev. Lena Parr, pastor of the AME Zion Church, told a large audience Tuesday evening at the second night of the week of prayer services held in the Presbyterian Church. Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of the St. James Lutheran Church, conducted the services. James Bricker read the Scripture, and Miss Vestal Stallsmith offered the prayer.

Music was provided by Mrs. Paul L. Reaser who sang "The Publican" by Van De Water. The ushers representing three local churches were John K. Lott, Lawson Wright, Russell Howard and Glenn Hess.

Rev. Parr preached on the theme "Prayer" and said: "Many times we have prayed, but God refuses to answer because He gets tired of hearing the same prayer. He wants us to ask for things we should have. Paul looked upon the discovery of prayer as a new birth and beginning of a new life. If Judas would have understood prayer, God could have been of help to him. Jesus stands between God and us to make intercessions to our prayers."

Methodist Pastor Tonight
"We are unable to count the blessings but we are able to share them with our fellow men. God looks into our minds and reads our thoughts. God changes our minds, even though they are evil, to come to Him through prayer. We

HERE AND THERE

Have you seen an old sable brown and white dog around your place... a fourteen-year-old fellow who is blind in one eye... a fellow who answers to the name of Skip?

Well, if you have, or if you do, please call Gettysburg 737 and you will make his 66-year-old master a very happy man.

Charles Preston came to Gettysburg Sunday from the veterinarian department of Cornell University to take charge of the stables at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Teeter, Twin Lakes, Old Mill Rd. With him was his dog, a fellow who has been his constant companion since he was a pup. They were inseparable. The dog loved his master, a widower of some 20 years, and he in turn, loved his dog.

Monday morning the dog disappeared and all efforts to locate him have been in vain. "Skip" is a cross between a toy shepherd and a collie.

When the borough council finance committee prepares its budget for submission to council in February it is to be hoped that some provision will be made to replace the most antiquated street lighting system for many miles around with a more modern system.

Gettysburg's downtown streets are dismal areas compared with other nearby communities. The present standards are as old fashioned and antiquated as button shoes. Most of the light is wasted—being reflected skyward instead of down on the street area. The same prevails in many areas of town where the 50-year-old lights still hold forth, while in some other areas of town more modern and brighter lights have been placed. Why?

APPLY FOR LICENSES
The following have applied for marriage licenses in Chambersburg: George H. McNew, Fayetteville, and Doris Jean McEnrick, Orrtanna R. 1; Eugene B. Steinhour, R. 2, and Helen L. Auman, Mercersburg R. 1.

LEAVES SCHOOL BOARD
Atty. Robert D. Hanson, formerly of Gettysburg, newly-appointed solicitor for Dauphin County, Monday resigned his post on Harrisburg School Board because two offices are incompatible under the county code.

DO NOT BLAME IKE ON MISSILES STAUFFER SAYS

Congressman S. Walter Stauffer declared Monday evening, in a talk before the local Rotary Club, that if there is blame for delay in the nation's missile program, it should go on Congress and not President Eisenhower.

Speaking on "Problems of the New Congress" at the meeting of Rotary at the YWCA, Stauffer held that economics made by "the Democratically controlled" Congress at its last session were effected mostly at the expense of the defense budget and recalled that he had been among a group that sought to restore some $300,000,000 to the defense budget, of which a large amount was for missile development.

"But there was too much opposition and the move lost. And to be fair about it, the opposition was non-partisan, there were Republicans and Democrats both in it. So we can't blame President Eisenhower for not wanting to provide the money. It was Congress that did it."

Haven't Been Asleep
At the same time Congressman Stauffer said: "I am not overly alarmed about our present defense setup. We and Russia worked on different things because of the differences in our setups. We have strings of bases close to Russia, so we can deliver a terrible blow and Russia knows it. Because we had the bases, we worked hardest on the shorter range missiles and bombers, that is what we needed. Russia had no such bases and she had to work harder on the 5,000-mile missiles, because that was

EXPECT MANY AT EGG GRADING SESSION HERE

The Adams County Agricultural Extension Association is expecting a large turnout of storekeepers and farmers' wives at an egg grading meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Adams Electric Co-operative building, rear of N. Stratton St.

"Experience of two Pittsburgh stores, where arrests have been made for failure to properly grade eggs, is leading to a vastly increased interest storekeepers in egg grading," Associate County Agent Fred P. Attinger said today.

The new state law setting grades provides fines up to $500 and a year in prison for violations of the egg grading law, and makes the person who did the grading responsible.

Buy Eggs By Crate
Attinger said most stores in the county buy eggs by the crate and then the storekeepers pack the eggs in smaller containers for sale to their customers. When they do so, they are liable under the law for the grade and must have the grades marked on the containers.

Kermit Birth, agricultural extension economist from Pennsylvania State University; Wesley Kriebel, marketing specialist for this area, and a representative for the Bureau of Markets, Harrisburg, will speak at Wednesday's meeting. It will follow the annual all-day livestock program to be held at the same place starting at 10 a.m.

BAILED FOR HEARING

Robert L. Bupp, Aspers, was arrested Monday evening by Constable Swisher on a charge of illegally receiving relief brought by William R. Sunday, agent for the Department of Public Assistance. Bupp furnished $500 bail and was released to appear at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder January 20.

Should an insurance policy mean what it says or should it mean what it was believed to have meant was the question argued by attorneys Monday before the Adams County court.

The argument was on the motion of Charles E. Benchoff, Littlestown R. D., to strike off the compulsory non-suit that was imposed against him by the court the first time his assumpsit suit against the Paradise Mutual Life Insurance Co. and Protection Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Littlestown came into court.

Atty. John A. MacPhail, representing Benchoff, held that he in good faith had paid premiums on policies with the two companies and thus should have been paid when

Congress Meets, Aware Of Red Strides, U.S. Defense

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress convened today for a session certain to be dominated by national concern over Russian strides into the space and rocket age.

Among many of the returning members there was an apparent sense of urgency such as prevailed in the early days of World War II.

The men and women who must grapple with the Sputnik-spawned problems of the day are the same ones who sat in the first session of the 85th Congress. The leadership is the same.

But the mood was so altered as to make this an entirely different Congress from the one which shut up shop last August. At that time many members were crowing that cuts had been made in the Eisenhower administration's spending plans and the way thus opened for a tax cut in this 1958 election year.

Now, tax cut talk is hushed. Instead, some members are asking whether a sagging economy can be bolstered and defense needs met without resort to red ink financing.

President Eisenhower gave word to his Republican legislative leaders that he will present a balanced budget of about 74 billion dollars. This would be an increase of about two billion from his budget for the current fiscal year. The GOP legislators met with the President at the White House before the formalities of opening Congress.

Eisenhower's budget is to be presented to the Congress next Monday. This Thursday he will deliver in person his annual State of the Union message.

The White House has indicated this will deal almost exclusively with national defense and foreign policy issues in the light of Soviet space advances.

Polio Dance February 7th

February 7 was announced today as the date for the annual March of Dimes dance to be held by the Adams County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Mrs. Joseph E. Codori, fund drive chairman for the local polio fund, said the Mary Howe Trio will provide music for the 25th annual dance held to raise funds for infantile paralysis. The dance, as customary, will be held at the Hotel Gettysburg.

Committees are seeking sponsors for the dance as part of the fund raising campaign which includes the sending of donation cards to 13,000 motor car owners in the county, placing of canisters in business places, the annual program in the schools and similar activities.

Funds raised this year to a large extent will go toward providing medical, surgical, and mechanical and electronic aids for persons who have suffered polio in prior years.

COUNCIL SETS SIX MONTHS OF DAYLIGHT TIME

Gettysburg borough council Monday night, at its meeting in the engine house, established six months of daylight saving time for next summer.

Council adopted a resolution setting the hours for meeting at 7:30 p.m. in January, February, March, April, November and December and at 8 p.m. during the months of May through October.

William R. Wagner, Harrisburg, representing Wagner and Co., a pension consulting firm, outlined the new state law which requires that municipalities employing three or more policemen must set up a police pension plan providing a minimum pension of one-half salary for policemen who have served at least 20 years and reached the age of 60.

Names Pension Committee
Council President H. M. Oyler asked the finance and safety committees, the solicitor and burgess to work out a suitable plan to bring Gettysburg's police pension plan into conformity with the state law. At present the police pension plan is paid from sums provided through the state and will provide about $60 to $80 a month for the local policemen when they reach retirement age. The new law requires pensions of about $137 a month at the present salaries of the policemen.

The Adams County Free Library asked council to increase the annual donation from $800 a year to $1,200. Mrs. Mary Wilson, librarian, (Continued On Page 2)

POLICY TERMS ARE ARGUED IN COURT ACTION

Should an insurance policy mean what it says or should it mean what it was believed to have meant was the question argued by attorneys Monday before the Adams County court.

The argument was on the motion of Charles E. Benchoff, Littlestown R. D., to strike off the compulsory non-suit that was imposed against him by the court the first time his assumpsit suit against the Paradise Mutual Life Insurance Co. and Protection Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Littlestown came into court.

Atty. John A. MacPhail, representing Benchoff, held that he in good faith had paid premiums on policies with the two companies and thus should have been paid when

OYLER RENAMED PRESIDENT OF TOWN COUNCIL

Third Ward Councilman H. M. "Happy" Oyler was re-elected president of the Gettysburg borough council Monday as he began his 23rd year as a councilman. Council met in the engine house.

Burgess Wilbur L. Plank officiated at the opening of council and administered the oath of office to Mahlon P. Hartzell Sr. and C. Donald Rebert, both of whom were re-elected last November. Councilman Philip M. Jones, also starting a new term, was unable to be present and will be sworn in later.

When Hartzell and Rebert had taken the oath and signed the loyalty oath required of all political officials, Plank called for nomination for president. Councilman Hartzell nominated Oyler. Rebert seconded and on another motion the nominations were closed.

Others Re-elected
On motion of Oyler, seconded by Councilman Harold Ecker, John H. Basehore was re-elected treasurer and on motion of Oyler, seconded by Hartzell, Mrs. Anna Dracha was re-elected secretary. ## NEW BURGESS PLEDGES HELP DURING REGIME

When Wilbur L. Plank, first Democrat to be elected burgess of Gettysburg in 20 years, officially opened the organization meeting of town council Monday evening in the engine house, he made the following statement:

"I wish, first of all, to thank Burgess Weaver and individual members of council for many courtesies, and for practical assistance, in the period immediately preceding my taking office. Most of you gentlemen probably can recall similar experiences when the field of local government was new to you. No doubt you all realize how a newly-elected official can appreciate the thoughtfulness and generosity of those who know the ropes."

"As you undertake your present program I look forward to the privilege of being associated with you in your important service to the people of Gettysburg."

"Have Similar Views"
"It is gratifying to note our similar views on certain matters in which planning, progress and performance are evident. A convincing example of forward thinking by council was seen in your creation of a planning commission. Mentioning only one particular phase of planning, I believe people generally have expressed approval of your contribution to the solving of our traffic problem by participating in a survey during the summer of 1956. Besides this specific field there are, of course, many areas of borough

VFW Will Sponsor Local Baseball Team

The Community Service Committee of Post 15, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held its first meeting of the year at the post home on East Middle St. Monday night.

Chief among the projects discussed was the entrance of a post-sponsored baseball team in the age 16-19 community league. Clyde Rohrbaugh Jr. will act as manager-coach with Wayne Asper and Patrick McDermitt as assistants.

It was announced that the banquet for the community horseshoe league will be held next Monday night when winners will be awarded their trophies. ## 38 ASSESSORS ARE SWORN IN Thirty-three of the county's 38 assessors took their oath of office Monday evening at a special meeting held by the Adams County commissioners in the court house.

Judge W. C. Sheely conducted the "swearing in" program and praised the assessors for their excellent response and reminded them that they held a post of high responsibility and that "it is a privilege to serve in public office."

Two speakers made clear to the assessors that they are reporters, rather than the persons who make assessments, and told them that they should make that fact clear to their constituents.

Attorney Charles W. Wolf read the act of legislature which provides for the assessors to present certain information concerning properties, persons and personal property to the chief assessor's office, and which also provides that the actual assessments on property will be made by the chief assessor and not the local assessor.

Dr. George E. Fox, director of research for the Pennsylvania State Tax Equalization Board, also emphasized the reportorial duty of the local assessors and the setting of assessment by the chief assessor.

Charles Witmer, field representative for the tax equalization board, with Dr. Fox explained the work of the board in setting actual values for properties.

Chief Assessor D. Walker Woods Jr. announced March 10 as the date when all additional information concerning properties must be in his office.

It was stressed that persons who move into new districts must notify their assessor there or face a possible doubling of their tax as a penalty. Similarly persons becoming 21 years of age should notify their assessor or face a penalty of a double tax.

COUNCIL SETS

and William Darrah, president of the library, were spokesmen for the delegation which included Dr. Frank N. Hewson, Mrs. C. T. Ziegler, John Y. Crow and Magnus Flaws Jr.

More Library Work
Mrs. Wilson told council that circulation of books by the library has increased from 93,702 in 1947 to 224,533 in 1957, and that, while use of the library increased 300 per cent, costs had gone up 100 per cent. If council can provide $1,200 during the coming year it will have increased its donation by 100 per cent from the $600 given a decade ago, she said.

The matter was turned over to the finance committee for study. A resolution was adopted setting the bond for the borough treasurer at $10,000. The town pays the bond of all borough officials. Council approved enrolling the burgesses in the state burgesses association at a cost of $10. The safety committee and solicitor were directed to study whether the town should renew its membership in the Pennsylvania State Association of Boroughs, now that the membership fee is $190 a year.

Plan Light Survey
Councilman Ecker urged placing two street lights in the alley east of Carlisle St. and south of Water St., but asked that the matter be included in a general survey when Oyer said that the Metropolitan Edison Co. plans to make a general survey of the light of the town, including a new "white way" around Lincoln Square.

Councilman Mahlon P. Hartzell reported that the Reading Railroad is considering removal of the tracks on the Round Top spur. Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner was asked to work with residents on Buford Ave. to eliminate water from a "winter spring" causing ice near the Glenn L. Bream garage.

Councilman James Shenk reported plans for a meeting with Donald P. McPherson and others pertaining to drainage problems from the college and Water St. area across the McPherson and other properties.

Burgess Reports
Councilman George Naugle said he had protests from members of the Methodist Church about the service truck parked in front of the church on Sundays. It was decided to move the truck during church services.

Naugle reported that a request from the municipal authority concerning council's opinion on whether the authority should permit part of its property near the Hall of Presidents to be turned into a parking area at the expense of the Hall of Presidents was returned to the authority "without recommendation."

The burgess' report received by council showed receipts by retiring Burgess William G. Weaver of $3,162.01 during December. The amount included $128 in parking fines, $31 from five building permits, $2,474 from 48 digging permits, $293.27 theater tax, $146.64 taxi stall rental, $79.63 garbage license, $9 for mowing and a 45-cent postage refund.

Gets No Support
Charles R. Rupp Jr., Baltimore St., was ordered to pay $15 per week for the support of his 14-year-old daughter following a desertion and non-support hearing. Mrs. Rupp received no support, telling the court she had left the common home. There was discussion on Mrs. Rupp's staying out until the early hours of the morning. She told the court she stayed out in the hope her husband would be asleep so there would be no argument when she arrived home.

The non-support case against Samuel Banks, S. Washington St., was continued to February 7. Following a hearing on a petition asking Walter J. Hamm Jr., New Oxford R. D., to show cause why he should not produce additional records in connection with the equity action brought against him by his uncle, Hugh K. Hamm, Hanover R. D., in connection with an alleged partnership between the two in operation of a farm, the court held that no evidence had been produced to show that any additional records were in existence and the motion was dismissed.

Case Dismissed
The nonsupport case against Donald E. Lawver, Baltimore St., was dismissed upon payment of costs after Mrs. Lawver appeared in court to ask the dismissal.

The York Springs Lutheran Church will receive $200 from the $14,522.19 estate of the late Elhel A. Smith, late of Littleton Twp., according to the account of the executor, John N. Rough Route
A human making the rocket trip attributed to the Soviet pioneer would hurtle through the 70-below-zero chill of the stratosphere into the withering heat of the ionosphere, there to be bombarded by cosmic rays and burning X-rays and ultraviolet rays from the sun.

The Moscow sources said the Russian rocket man parachuted successfully to earth. They did not specify whether he was alive when he landed, but newsmen inferred that he was safe.

Observers believed the traveler was released from the rocket in a pressurized container, then broke clear to jump when the container dropped far enough.

The Russians have been sending dogs in rockets to lesser heights for months. The animals were released and parachuted safely to the ground.

The minutes also showed that council was to name an administrator for the fund.

Hartzell's report showed that as a result of the last five years during which funds lay idle, and the years during which the entire interest was not spent, there now is $2,057 in accumulated interest.

Hartzell and the finance committee were instructed to set up regulations for spending the interest annually. Most of the $2,057 accumulated interest will be deposited in the original funds to accumulate further interest.

the only way she could get to us. It was a difference in approach based upon different needs. But while I am not overly alarmed about our defense position, the success of the Russians proves that we may have underrated their science and it means we must work harder. We may have underrated the Russians, but we have not been asleep as some would have us believe.

Views On Some Issues

"I am selfish in regard to Pennsylvania and thus I am opposed to federal aid for schools and roads. Pennsylvania will get back about 80 per cent of what she spends in taxes, and when I see the fine schools we have built in Adams, Cumberland and York Counties I see no reason why we should have to pay for schools in Texas or Oklahoma where they are rolling in oil wealth, but claim they're too poor to build schools. Again I am opposed to federal spending because it is inefficient. If the federal government has to set up machinery to receive and allocate funds, there is a certain cost for that operation and it will have to come out of the amount received. There is no way to avoid that expense if you put the building on a federal scale.

"In addition, I fear encroaching federal power, because there is a trend which will reduce the states and counties to nothing but extensions of federal power. There are people who seek to promote federal control, because they know that it is easier to take over one governing body than 48 states and thousands of counties. And believe me, there are men who want to seek power in that fashion."

Dr. Harold Dunkelberger, president, presided at the meeting with about 60 present.

government in which distinct progress has been made, and we continue to be made.

"You who already have been serving as borough officials have demonstrated your awareness of problems that many residents have said must be solved if Gettysburg is to go forward."

Seek Better Gettysburg

"As a new member of Gettysburg's official family, I will do my best to help you advance our community, through any contribution that I have the ability to make. You and I know that, as public servants, we are all desirous of building toward a better Gettysburg, and we are all elected as public officials because the voters had confidence in our capacity, and in our intention to serve them."

"In those areas of government in which, although I am not empowered to act, I may be consulted, I will express my convictions, on the principle of the greatest good for the greatest number."

"In those areas where the Burgess specifically has responsibility I will study carefully every problem, then, without fear or favor, will act in accordance with the findings."

"I shall make it a rule to be available at the Burgess's office in this building on a regular schedule that I shall announce."

the barn collapsed during a wind storm, despite the fact that he was paying insurance on a farm which his parents had the right to occupy for the remainder of their lives.

Could Lead To Abuses

Atty. Thomas Miller, appearing from Harrisburg for the insurance companies, held that Benchoff, while he may become the owner upon the death of his parents, was not the owner at the time he bought the insurance and "thus didn't insure what he could have insured, and a word to the agent would have cleared the whole matter up."

The insurance policy specifically stated that it was to the sole owner, and Attorney Miller held, while the situation was unfortunate, in this instance, to permit a person to put insurance on property he doesn't own could lead to all kinds of abuses. MacPhail argued that "as in equity, things should be as they should be in this instance."

Two Cases Settled

Two other arguments were scheduled for the session of court but Prothonotary Herbert W. Miller reported both are settled. They were the motion to take off the compulsory non-suit in the action brought by H. Walter Rees, Akron, O., against Edith F. Baker, administrator of the estate of Samuel H. Mattingly, late of Gettysburg, and the arguments on preliminary objections of the defendant, John F. Bodkins, in the trespass action brought by Betty Mae Group, administratrix of the estate of Nora A. Bodkins, for the benefit of John F. Bodkins and Nora Ann Bodkins, heirs, and on behalf of the estate of Nora F. Bodkins against Dean Albert Orner and John F. Bodkins.

Gordon B. Wolf was appointed auditor in Hamilton Twp. to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John H. Haar.

John Gebhart, New Oxford R. 1, who had served the minimum of a six to 12 months sentence on burglary and larceny, was placed on parole for a year with one condition that he secure a haircut different from the type he was wearing.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the
Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Social Functions: An assembly masquerade was held at Hotel Gettysburg last Tuesday evening. There were about 70 people present to enjoy the event. Many of the costumes were handsome. Supper was served at 11 o'clock. The German Orchestra of Carlisle furnished music for the occasion.

The same evening a very enjoyable masquerade soiree took place in Xavier Hall which was attended by about 30 masked couples and a number who were not masked. Many of the costumes were elaborate. Music was furnished by the Gettysburg orchestra. The unmasking took place about ten o'clock. Supper was served at eleven o'clock.

Last Tuesday Charles E. Dentrick completed his term as Prothonotary and it can be truthfully said of Charlie that he was an able, agreeable and obliging official, who performed his duties with fidelity and to the best interests of all concerned. He was exceptionally well liked by the lawyers and public officials. William A. Taubman, his successor, took the oath of office on Monday. We wish him a pleasant and prosperous term.

Local Miscellany: Our town has been in darkness for several nights, owing to a break in the machinery at the power house, which has been repaired and the lights were turned on about eleven o'clock Monday night.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, in Hanover, last Friday Rev. Dr. T. J. Barkley, of this place, was elected president.

School Question A Serious One: The Gettysburg school board met in regular session last Thursday evening. The committee appointed at the last meeting to devise means for the accommodation of the great number of scholars reported that they had visited in Shippensburg, Carlisle and Steelton. They urged prompt relief of the crowded conditions of our schools.

The matter was thoroughly discussed during which it was pointed out that in four of the schools in the High street building there were between 50 and 60 pupils. One of these schools will go into the Meade Building next year and there will be no room to accommodate the pupils. The situation is a serious one and will be solved at the next meeting when definite action will be taken. The present houses will either be enlarged or an additional one will be built.

Fantastic Parades: The towns of Biglerville, Benderville, Aspers, Centre Mills and Arendtsville, as well as the rural districts in the upper end of the county witnessed a well gotten up fantastic parade. Many of the upper end citizens participated and the costumes were comic and tasty. The parade formed in the upper end of the county and passed through the above towns. It was an enjoyable affair.

A Little town on New Year's Day a fantastic parade attracted a large crowd of visitors from other towns and the surrounding country.

The paraders wore garments of varied color and design and all were greeted with applause by the spectators who lined the sidewalks.

Today's Talk

BE MY GUEST

I have just been reading one of the most interesting and inspiring success stories I have ever read — "Be My Guest," by Conrad Hilton. Here is a man who started out in the first place with nothing but troubles, disappointments, and failures. He liked to build, and run, hotels. Often he didn't have a bed in one of his earliest hotels where he himself could sleep! At one time he was "staked" by one of his bellobos!

Even when this man had but a few Texas hotels, he had dreams. One of them was that some day he was determined to own the famous Waldorf-Astoria. That time came, and then he dreamed some more — and bought the great group of Statler hotels, costing over $100,000,000! I read where a writer said that from childhood Hilton was "trained" to "tackle the risks of life head-on."

The Hilton story is so amazing and fabulous that it is difficult to believe but it is authentic and true. And now scattered all over the globe are to be found hotels that bear the name of this man of dreams and faith. Remember, too, he had a great, God-fearing mother who was the inspiration of his life.

"Be My Guest" is rather long, but there isn't a dull spot in the entire book! You get the story of a man who was a dreamer and one of action. A man who placed his religion high and whose faith never failed him. I am told he is a man of simple personal traits and a companion worth knowing. He could well be known as a scatterer of dreams that mostly have come true.

Last year I was a brief guest at the beautiful Caribe Hilton in Puerto Rico, a dream surely as it looks out in the sunshine upon the mountains, a man's additional dream achieved. Each one of this great Hilton chain of hotels is a dream come true! This book by Conrad Hilton should have a wide reading. It's an inspirational book de luxe!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Banish All Fears".

Just Folks

SUPPOSE:
Suppose you keep a diary of the hurtful things you say
And the heedless deeds you're doing in the turmoil of the day;
Suppose you keep a diary of the selfish things you do,
Don't you think that it would help to make a kinder man of you?

Suppose some wintry evening when you're jitting all alone
You could read your careless speeches, and recall the bitter tone
That had hurt a brother's feelings as the past came in review,
Don't you think that it would help to make a gentler man of you?

If you wrote down every meanness that in haste you're guilty of,
Every little selfish action, every thoughtless kick and shove
That you gave a slipping brother as your toll you hurried through,
Don't you think that it would help to make a better man of you?

Say Nation's Strategy Out Of Step With Missile Age Tempo

WASHINGTON (AP)—A civilian study group says the nation's strategy and military forces are out of step with the tempo of the missile age and need big changes and billions more in money.

Defense spending should be increased about three billion dollars each year for the next several years, said a special 21-man panel of the Rockefeller Brothers Fund.

Sum Up Findings

Summing up findings in a study which began in 1956, the panel concluded among other things that:

1. Strategy "lags behind developments in technology" and "the United States is rapidly losing its lead in the race of military technology." The lag in missiles and space machines "reflects our national complacency."

2. Strategy, as evolved by the Joint Chiefs of Staff, is "a patchwork of compromise" among the rival armed forces. The Joint Chiefs of Staff "functions too often as a committee of partisan adversaries engaged in advancing service strategic plans and compromising service differences." The panel said the JCS chairman "should be in a position to shape strategic planning," with the other members merely advising him. It added the secretary of defense now is compelled to devote much of his time to acting as a referee in service disputes.

3. Combined commands should be created, in which land, sea and air units would come under a single commander with the composition of the combined force patterned to the mission it would perform.

No longer would the chiefs of staff of the services direct military operations of their services. The departments of the Army, Navy and Air Force would become agencies for recruiting and training men and procuring and distributing equipment and supplies.

Even more startling to the observers of military tradition was the group's proposal that all officers above one-star rank cease to be identified with an individual service, becoming officers "of the armed forces of the United States."

21-Man Panel

This nongovernmental assessment of what's wrong with defense, issued Sunday night in a 15,000-word report, became available to the public while the White House kept secret the report of its own presidentially picked Gaither committee.

The 21-man panel, headed by Nelson A. Rockefeller, included scientists, former diplomats, former defense officials and military officers, industrialists, atomic experts, educators, publishers and a labor union representative. The Rockefeller study group says that perhaps the most difficult thing for this nation to accept is "the reality of our peril." It writes that "A new technology of unprecedented power and destructiveness has placed all nations of the world in dire peril."

An attack on 50 of the most important metropolitan areas would fall upon 55 per cent of the nation's population and 75 per cent of its industry, the report says. The report concludes that the casualties in such an attack might be 10 to 15 million dead, 15 to 20 million injured, and 25 to 35 million caught in radioactive fallout.

GROVER BEATEN, ROBBED

WAYNESBORO, Pa. (AP)—Fred A. Grosh, 68, Greencastle grocer, who was beaten and robbed of $200 Saturday night, was reported in serious condition Monday in Waynesboro Hospital from a possible fractured skull.

Grosh had closed his store and was on the way home when he was struck on the head with a gun barrel. The assailant picked up the cash and fled.

Doorbell Warns Of Cellar Blaze

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—When the doorbell rang Mrs. Paul Summers got up and answered. But the doorbell was empty and the darkened street offered no clue to her early-morning caller.

Then she smelled smoke and discovered a small fire in the cellar of her home in suburban Westmere. "We sure do have a well-trained doorbell," her husband remarked before he inspected the damage.

The blaze had burned the insulation from the doorbell wire, which ran along the sub-flooring in the cellar.

YANK TEACHER WEDS MAYOR

ARLES, France (AP)—Arlesians spoke with surprise today of the secret marriage—Dec. 23—of their mayor and an American school-teacher from York, Pa.

The romance began when Arles in southern France became linked with York in a twin-city project. It was decided that school teachers should be exchanged.

To Arles came Miss Virginia Margaret Bolz, of York, to teach English in the town's Leon Blum school. Her family live in Harrisburg, and her brother teaches French in Baltimore.

She soon met the 43-year-old mayor, Charles Privata, a widower, who had himself been a schoolmaster until becoming mayor in 1947.

The couple were married in the presence of a few town councillors after the Town Hall had closed for the day's business. A religious ceremony followed at a Protestant church.

While Arles observed Christmas and the New Year, the couple were away on their honeymoon. The news came out upon their return.

DULLES DECIDES HE'LL STAY ON DESPITE ATTACK HE'S EXPECTING

WASHINGTON (AP)—John Foster Dulles has decided to stay on as secretary of state and is steeling himself to resist what he anticipates will be a mounting Democratic demand he retire.

President Eisenhower is understood to have assured him of full backing if he will continue. The 69-year-old secretary is reported to have considered his future carefully within the past few weeks.

Opportunity Here

Friends said he realized that if he wanted to quit, his 70th birthday Feb. 25 and the approach of an expected hectic congressional session would have given him ample reason.

Now that he has made his decision, informants said, he has no intention of quitting under domestic political fire.

The big question mark is his health. He is understood to be confident, however, he will be vigorous enough for the job.

Never So Tired

Dulles had some reason to question his fitness when he returned from the Atlantic Pact summit meeting in Paris two weeks ago, weary and suffering from a bad case of laryngitis. At that time he complained to friends he never before had felt so tired.

But, after a five-day New Year's vacation on Long Island, he appears to have bounced back. Joyfully, he told friends on his return that he felt as good as he looked.

Dulles underwent a major operation for removal of a cancerous section of his intestine 13 months ago. Careful medical attention since then is understood to have shown no sign of recurrence.

Ike Shares His Views

Dulles is understood to believe the next few months will be critical in deciding the free world's answer to Russia's space age challenge. One of his main aims during this period, informants said, will be to prevent any high-level East-West talks unless solid spadework is done in advance to assure the success of such meetings.

President Eisenhower is reported to share his basic view.

Foresees Quick Business Recovery, Expanded Sales

By RELMAN MORIN

NEW YORK (AP)—A note of uncertainty about the outlook for business in the first half of 1958 marks the opening Monday of the National Retail Dry Goods Assn. convention. But one of the principal speakers foresees quick recovery followed by expanding sales.

He is Edward W. Carter, president of the Broadway-Halo Stores of Los Angeles.

"I should like to reiterate my conviction that the present rolling business adjustment, manifested in part by a moderate decline in store sales, will probably run its course in 1958, and should be followed during the next 10 years by an irregular expansion in store sales comparable to that of the past 10," Carter said in a prepared address.

5,000 Executives Present

More than 5,000 retail executives, representing 2,300 stores, were here for the four-day convention. A 52-man delegation from Canada also was registered.

G. Gordon Dakins, executive vice president of the NRDA, said registration for the sessions, and the sale of exhibit space, was the highest in years. He attributed this in part to "uncertainty of business conditions."

The convention opened with a two-hour demonstration of ROP, a process of color advertising in newspapers.

Dakins released the findings in the NRDA's annual year-end survey of business conditions. He said 43 per cent of those surveyed in more than 2,000 stores reported lower profits in 1957, compared with 1956.

Reports Vary

Of the remainder, he said, 29 per cent said earnings were about the same, and 28 per cent reported increased earnings.

The survey of the findings called 1957 "a disappointing year for many stores" and found "a cautious outlook for the first half of 1958."

As a result, the report said, "many stores reported that they are planning to cut their newspaper line in order to offset the rise in their newspaper advertising rates." The survey showed 64 per cent saying they plan to reduce their advertising.

Carter said, however, that he looks for a "steady expansion in sales" later this year or in 1959.

"Kingfish" In Real Trouble This Time

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Comedian Harry R. Moore, who plays the role of Kingfish in the Amos and Andy television show, was arrested Sunday night after his wife reported that he fired a shot at her, police said.

Police said Mrs. Vivian J. Moore, 39, told them her husband fired and missed during an argument over disappearance of a roast beef from their refrigerator.

Moore, who told police his age was "three score and 10," was booked on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon.

Moore is identified as Tim Moore in film credits for the Amos and Andy show.

NCAA Puts Memphis State On Two Years' Probation, Bans Play In All Official Meets

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The NCAA Council announced today that 14 cases of alleged violations of the collegiate governing body's athletic code are still pending.

The number was reduced from 16 yesterday when the council meted out punishment to Memphis State University and the University of Wichita.

The names of the 14 members were not made public in a detailed statistical report released today.

As the 52nd annual NCAA convention went into its second day of open meetings, delegates were also wondering to what extent the convention will endorse the 1957 television committee's recommendation that the field of pay-TV be thoroughly investigated.

2 Years Probation

Memphis State, found in violation of provisions governing entrance requirements and financial aid to athletes, was placed on two years probation and barred from all NCAA-sponsored meets and tournaments and co-operating events.

Wichita, although deemed guilty of a serious infraction involving various illegal payments to football players, received a lesser penalty—one year's probation with no non-tournament stipulation—because the university co-operated with the NCAA.

First Varsity Season

The Memphis State case involved three basketball players who were admitted to the university without meeting complete entrance requirements. They were identified by the university as Kent Bryan, Phil Mulky, and Marvin Seat. All three transferred to State in mid-semester of 1957. This is their first varsity season. Bryan is the regular center, while Mulky and Seat have seen little action. Bryan and Mulky came from Wyoming, while Seat transferred from Vanderbilt and North-east Mississippi Junior College.

University President Jack Smith, denying any wrongdoing by State, announced the NCAA ruling to a capacity crowd at the half-time of the State-Oklahoma City basketball game last night. He said that State's entrance requirements called for transcripts of each student's previous school record. The three basketball players were unable to obtain transcripts because they owed small fees, but they were admitted to State on a provisional basis until the debts were settled, Smith said. Except for the debts, they were in good standing at their previous schools, Smith added.

TV Reports Today

The 1957 TV committee's report goes before the convention's general round table today. It was to be discussed along with report and special recommendations of the special committee on college-professional relations; the report and recommendations of the youth fitness committee; and the reports from the athletic directors and faculty representatives round table which were held yesterday. Today's other big meeting was the college round table, in which the smaller members, as differentiated from the university group, discussed their business.

The TV committee's report, made public last night, said the 1957 controlled TV plan was successful, indicating no need for change next season, but it also made a strong case for a careful study of pay-TV and the benefits and problems it might present to the NCAA.

The council promised a statement today on the touchy question of the legality of pre-college education provided for some Army and Navy athletes.

The announcement would cause some fireworks.

GRANT TO FISH GROUP IS CUT

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Fish Commission today puzzled over the federal government's reasons for trimming its grant to the state for fishing programs.

The commission at its meeting yesterday formally accepted the $121,000 allocation from the federal government but noted with "astonished regret" that this was $19,000 under last year's allocation ($140,000).

William Voigt, executive director of the commission, said the group is going to ask the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service why the state's share was cut "in the face of rising fishing tackle items subject to the tax."

He referred to taxes collected on certain types of fishing tackle under the U. S. Dingell-Johnson Act. Voigt contended that increased sales of tackle and licenses in the state indicated more funds should be available rather than less.

In other actions, the commission voted to:

Stop fishing from the breasts of dams impounding commission

WEST VIRGINIA TIGHTENS GRIP ON TOP POSITION

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press

Free-scoring West Virginia strengthened its hold on the No. 1 spot in today's Associated Press basketball poll, but Mississippi State and Oklahoma State—two clubs who play 'em close to the vest—begin to look like not-so-distant horses.

While West Virginia (10-0) pulled away from runner-up Kansas (10-1), Mississippi State jumped from ninth to fifth and Oklahoma State to eighth from 14th. The poll is based on games through Saturday.

Mississippi State and West Virginia are the only unbeaten clubs among the top 10. State has the best record among major teams after winning No. 11 with a 46-42 decision over high-scoring Alabama last night in Southeastern Conference play.

9th In Run For Cowboys

Oklahoma State, moving up after last week's 52-50 overtime upset of Kansas, knocked off seventh-ranked Cincinnati 61-57. It was the ninth in a row for the Cowboys, who have lost only their opener—to Kansas.

West Virginia, Kansas, third-ranked North Carolina and sixth-ranked San Francisco were idle. Once-beaten Kansas State, demoted to fourth in the poll while North Carolina moved up, got past Minnesota 72-71. Ninth-ranked Kentucky beat Vanderbilt 86-81. Bradley, No. 10, went into overtime to defeat Houston 75-73, and Tulsa slipped past Drake 59-57 in a pair of Missouri Valley Conference games.

Illinois Upset

Iowa upset Illinois 70-68. Purdue defeated Indiana 68-66. Missouri nipped Nebraska 55-54. Montana State defeated Iowa State 62-61.

Bailey Howell scored 23 points for Mississippi State, 18 in the second half. The Maroons led 18-8 at the half.

Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson scored 29 but that wasn't enough to ward off the Bearcats' second defeat.

Blow Early Lead

Kansas State blew an early 11-point lead, then hustled back as Don Matuszak scored nine points in the last seven minutes and Hayden Abbott scored the clincher in the final 60 seconds.

Sub guard Earl Adkins scored all but two of his 25 points in the second half for Kentucky, which meets Mississippi State Feb. 10 in what could be the SEC payoff.

In other SEC play, Tulane defeated Georgia 67-59, Auburn whipped Mississippi 71-51 and Florida smacked Louisiana State 61-57.

Waynesboro Seeks Sixth Here Tonight Prelim At 6:45

The largest crowd so far this season is expected at the Gettysburg High School gymnasium tonight where the Warriors host undefeated Waynesboro in a South Penn Basketball League game.

Waynesboro, led by its scoring ace Russ Hopewell, has swept past five straight opponents. The Warriors dropped three in a row since winning their two opening starts.

The reserve teams will clash at 6:45.

Meanwhile the Gettysburg Junior High cagers travel to Waynesboro for a league double-header.

Other scholastic games tonight include: Big Spring at Biglerville, Bermudian Joint at Fairfield, and Delone at Bishop McDevitt, Harrisburg.

PACKERS OUST BLACKBOURNE; BOOST M'LEAN

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—The Green Bay Packers last night ousted head coach Lisle Blackburn and picked his top assistant Ray McLean to run the National Football League team next season.

Blackburn had a year left on his five-year contract. Indications were that the club's board of directors are paying him the full $25,000 he would have received for the final year under the agreement.

McLean, Packers' backfield coach the past seven seasons, was given a one-year contract. Details were not revealed.

3 And 9 Record

The Packers, plagued by heavy injuries, finished the 1957 season with three victories and nine defeats for cellar spot in the Western Division. The record was the worst compiled by Blackburn's teams.

"One of my big hopes for next season is that injuries won't hamper us as much as they did last year," McLean told an interviewer. "And with some boys due to be released from service, it looks like we have the makings of a real good ball club."

Blackburn said at Mobile, Ala. "I was surprised although I can understand that perhaps the people in charge of the Packers were acting in good faith."

He said he had no immediate plans for the future.

CRAWFORD MAY FACE GAVILAN IN HIS NEXT FIGHT

NEW YORK (AP)—"Name" fighters don't awe young Mickey Crawford. The 23-year-old boxer from Saginaw, Mich., easily defeated Chico Vejar last night and his next rival may be Kid Gavilan, the former welterweight champion, in Miami Beach next month.

"Gavilan will be fine," said the rangy Crawford when his manager, Art Greenwald, mentioned that Miami Beach promoter Chris Dundee was anxious for that fight.

"I like to meet fighters with a reputation. I can go up faster," Crawford is moving real fast for a kid with only 25 months of pro experience. His record now is 19-2 and his victims include two former lightweight champions, Paddy DeMarco and Wallace (Bud) Smith.

Losses By Decision Mickey's losses, by decision, were to Don Wallace in his seventh fight in 1956, and to lightweight contender Ralph Dupas in New Orleans Nov. 25. The Dupas defeat snapped Mickey's winning streak at 12. Vejar was his first opponent since.

He weighed 146 for Dupas and was clearly outboxed.

"Dupas was just too fast for me," said Mickey candidly. "He beat me and no mistake about it. I had to take off weight to make 146."

Chico Sluggish Crawford stepped into the mid-dewlight division against Vejar as a 155½-pounder. Chico, a television favorite when he was on the rise in 1952 and 1953, was sluggish at 160.

A 9-5 underdog, Crawford soundly drubbed the 26-year-old veteran from Stamford, Conn. He met Chico's rushes with sharp, well-timed, left hooks and fast combinations to draw cheers from the crowd of 1,203 which paid $2.00 for the telecast 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena.

STRANAHAN IS WINNER IN L. A. GOLF TOURNEY

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ever wonder why a rich boy like Frank Stranahan wants to cross putters with the toughest golf pros in the game?

"Professional golf is one field where my family's money can't help me—it's my own fight," said the personable heir to a Toledo spark plug fortune after winning the $35,000 Los Angeles Open golf tournament yesterday.

The former amateur kingly fashioned a last round 4-under-par 67 for a 72-hole total of 275 in the annual tournament that kicks off the winter golf campaign. Many of the pros are going from here to Bing Crosby's tournament starting Thursday at Pebble Beach.

Picks Up $7,000 Stranahan picked up $7,000 for his efforts, more than his entire tournament winnings last year.

Playing flawlessly over the 7,100-yard Rancho course, Stranahan wrapped up the event early, stroking to a 4-under par on the first nine. After that the only question was—who would be second?

E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, the 47-year-old Arkansas Traveler who plays out of St. Louis, kept the gallery of 8,000 guessing until the final hole when he dropped an 18-footer for a 69 and a 278 total and $3,750.

Young Gay Brewer Jr., playing out of Cincinnati, had a one stroke advantage going into the final round. But he finally settled for a 72 and a 279 total for the $2,600 third place money.

One stroke back was Billy Casper Jr., of Apple Valley, Calif., with a 70 and a 280 total.

Texas' Bo Wininger and Al Balding of Canada each carded 70 for 281.

It was the second major tournament win for the 5-year-old Stranahan since he turned pro in 1954. His other tourney win was the Eastern Open in Baltimore in 1955.

Teammate Dunc Fisher has 48 points, one more than Bill Sweeney of Providence, who ranks third.

Fred Glover and Jimmy Moore, both of Cleveland, are next in line with 46 and 45 points, respectively.

Marshall has collected the most assists, but is tied with rookie Len Haley, also of Hershey, for the goalscoring lead.

Cleveland's Johnny Bower owns the best goals-against average among the goalies. His average is 2.19 with 81 goals given up in 37 games. He also is tops in shutouts with six.

Art Wall Top Pa.

Finisher At L. A.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Art Wall of Pocomo Manor, was the top Pennsylvania finisher in the Los Angeles Open golf tourney won yesterday by Frank Stranahan.

Wall had a 282, good for seventh place and $1,183 worth of the $35,000 prize money.

Other Keystone State leaders included Jay Hebert, formerly of Erie, who shot a 276 and collected $348; Stan Dudas, Philadelphia, with 239, good for $237.50; Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, whose 289 was worth $19.65, and Mike Souckak, formerly of Berwick, who shot a 290 for $153.33.

PILOT RETURNS TO SUEZ AS 2ND IS "EXPULSED"

ROME (AP)—An American pilot returning to his job on the Suez Canal met a colleague today who says he was expelled from Egypt without explanation.

Capt. E. Chester Holland, formerly of Chester, Pa., and now of San Francisco, said he would go back to piloting ships through the canal for the Egyptian government despite the experience of Capt. Raphael P. Kenel.

Kenel, of The Bronx, N. Y., arrived in Rome last week and said Egyptian police expelled him from the country without telling him why.

Visa In 10 Minutes Holland, another of the 10 Americans who have worked on the canal since Egypt nationalized it in 1956, was on a month's vacation when Kenel was ousted.

Holland arrived in Rome yesterday for a few days' visit. He said he received a visa today to re-enter Egypt from the Egyptian embassy here. He and Kenel met later in a Rome hotel.

Holland said he learned that Egyptian embassies and consulates now must secure prior approval from Cairo before issuing visas to any American pilots. He said he was given a re-entry visa in only 10 minutes, however.

16 TO RECEIVE FFA CITATIONS AT FARM SHOW

HARRISBURG (P)—The Future Farmers of America will award special citations to 16 organizations during the State Farm Show next week for outstanding cooperation in supporting the FFA program in Pennsylvania.

Seven of the citations will go to state newspapers for promoting future farmer activities in vocational agriculture. George D. Derr, acting state FFA advisor, singled out the Sun-Gazette, Williamsport, the Sunbury Daily Item, the Allied Newspapers (four weeklies) of Grove City, the Morrisons Cove Herald of Martinsburg, and the Reporter-Argus of Port Allegany.

The other newspapers to receive citations are the Altoona Mirror, the Intelligencer-Journal of Lancaster, the Sunbury Daily Item, the Allied Newspapers (four weeklies) of Grove City, the Morrisons Cove Herald of Martinsburg, and the Reporter-Argus of Port Allegany.

Cite Radio Stations
Citations will be given to two radio stations—WRAC, Williamsport, for giving time since 1933 for approximately 400 broadcasts in monthly FFA programs and special broadcasts, and to WKOK, Sunbury, for a long series of programs by Future Farmers of Sunder, Union, and Northumberland counties.

Three fair associations will be honored for sponsoring FFA produce and crop displays and contests. They are the Indiana County Fair Assn., the Kutztown Fair Assn., and the Cambria County Fair Assn.

The Lebanon County and city Chamber of Commerce also has been selected for a citation because for 30 years it has provided cash awards or medals to FFA boys exhibiting winners at local fairs, for sponsoring an FFA safety contest, and for promoting a better understanding of the mutual interest of industry and agriculture.

Recognize C of C
The Warren Chamber of Commerce will be recognized for activities including awards during the past ten years of $25 each to FFA members receiving the Keystone Farmer degree.

The Warfordsburg Lions Club will be cited for its encouragement of FFA members.

The First National Bank of Bedford, is to be honored similarly for its helpful attitude in encouraging the FFA members in developing their agricultural projects, and its readiness to assist with loans when necessary.

SAY MACMILLAN PLAN AIMED AT WIDER PROJECT

LONDON (P)—The British Foreign Office emphasized Monday that the East-West nonaggression pact suggested by Prime Minister Macmillan was intended only to complement wider agreements.

A Foreign Office spokesman said Macmillan had not consulted with Western Allies before setting forth his idea. The United States is cool but some other Western powers are more receptive to the plan.

The spokesman emphasized that the pact should be part of "a wider package agreement that could perhaps take in arrangements for ending the world arms race."

Pacts And Deeds
"What he really was saying was that we must continue to work for agreements which will be followed by deeds, that is the fulfillment of which will be proved by actions taken," the spokesman added.

"If it would assist in arriving at such agreements to have a non-aggression pact, then Her Majesty's government would feel that such a pact, to complement the agreements, might do some good."

The spokesman said he was offering an interpretation, not a correction, of the Prime Minister's statement.

In his speech, Macmillan recounted failures to reach a disarmament agreement with Moscow, and said: "We must try again. We could start by a solemn pact of nonaggression. It would do no harm. It might do good."

Reds Are Pleased
The Communist party newspaper Pravda noted with approval that "the British government intends to seek an agreement with the Russians."

Some British newspapers criticized Macmillan. The Daily Telegraph said "experience has shown that all the diplomatic recipes nonaggression pacts are the least effective."

The Paris newspaper Combat also expressed doubts, and said the Macmillan idea lacked "the realism in which British statesmen pride themselves."

French officials in Paris said the idea would have to be examined by NATO. Officials in West Germany and Italy seemed more receptive.

WASHINGTON, (P)—Rep. Robert W. Kean (R-NJ) plans to introduce a constitutional amendment that would bar states from imposing an income tax on residents of another state.

More than 10,000 farm products, machinery and equipment exhibits on display will have a value of about $6 million.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (P)—President Eisenhower will be watched this year, both for leadership and imagination, as never before. It may be a most fateful year, both for him and for the country.

Neither he nor Congress, which returns this week, knows whether 1957 was a turning-point in history, or whether 1958 will be, or whether they do this year will determine the future.

They do know this: last year Russia revealed such progress that this country will be for years in a continuing and enormous struggle to get ahead or even stay abreast.

May Determine Outcome
And the steps both Congress and Eisenhower take this year—in laying the foundations for the enormous future effort necessary—may decide who wins in the end: this country or Russia.

This is a terrible burden for a 66-year-old president who has now suffered a serious illness every year for three years and whose doctors restrict his activities.

No president ever took office with more public confidence than Eisenhower. For his first four years he had a charmed political life, amazingly free of criticism.

All This Changed
In those years the public was not aware of the astonishing progress of Russia. And those years were a time of rising prosperity when all that seemed necessary was to go on as before and keep down government spending.

All this changed in 1957, the first year of Eisenhower's second term, and three things did it: Eisenhower's own obvious failures in leadership at home; his third illness; and sudden public awareness of how fast Russia was moving, an awareness forced upon it by the Sputniks and the missiles.

His illness raised natural questions about his ability to give the kind of full and active leadership needed.

This country might be able to withstand for a while White House uncertainties on domestic problems. But it knows it can't make less than a full effort in foreign affairs now.

CHICAGO (P)—An 8-year-old boy afflicted with a brain tumor died in his evangelist father's arms at a prayer meeting Sunday night as his parents and members of the congregation sang hymns and offered prayers.

6 NATIONS PLAN ECONOMIC UNIT

PARIS (P)—Top-level diplomats from six West European nations Monday sat down for two days of hard work to set up the machinery for economic integration.

Following a series of private talks the foreign ministers of France, Belgium, West Germany, Luxembourg and Italy met at the French Foreign Office. Secretary of State Van Der Beugel represented the Netherlands.

The ministers must name a capital for their new organization and choose the personnel to get it started.

The six-nation treaties setting up the common market and an atomic pool for peaceful purposes went into effect Jan. 1 in the next 15 years they are scheduled to weld the six nations into an economic bloc of more than 170 million people, with trade among the six nations to be free of tariff and with tariff on imports from outside the area to be unified.

The ministers will name nine members of the Common Market Economic Commission and a five-man Euratom Commission. Both bodies are expected to be functioning by the end of next week.

The Euratom Commission's chief task is to maintain a continuous survey of nuclear industries within the six nations and to act as a clearing house for atomic information and cooperation.

Raymond Swanger was injured when his chute opened only partially after he leaped from a plane at 2,300 feet over the Donegal Airport near Mt. Joy, Pa.

FIRE IN SCHOOL AT CHARLEROI

CHARLEROI, Pa. (P)—Fire damaged the furnace room of the Ninth Street grade school Monday.

All of the approximately 350 pupils walked to safety.

The two-alarm blaze broke out a short while after classes had begun. The children and their teachers fled out of the building in an orderly fashion and were given shelter in a nearby garage of the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co.

Firemen from Charleroi, Monaca, Belle Vernon and Lock Four fought the blaze. They managed to confine the flames to the furnace room. A Lock Four fireman, M. J. Miller, was overcome by smoke. He was treated at Charleroi-Monaca Hospital.

The two-story brick school building is more than 50 years old. Cause of the fire was not immediately determined. Police estimated the damage at $4,000 to $5,000.

HUNDREDS OF TEXANS START BACK TO HOMES

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP)—Rough seas battered the lower Texas Gulf Coast today while hundreds of persons displaced by the worst floods in three years started back to their homes.

More than 250 persons still were displaced by high water here, although the flood tide from five days of heavy rains was slowly receding.

"We hope to go back to our home today," said Andres Arevalo, 42, a plumber's helper. He evacuated his family of 13 when murky floodwaters began lapping at the door of his home.

Helped By Red Cross
"We have been here two nights. The children seem to enjoy it, but we want to return to our home," he said, sipping coffee in a Red Cross shelter at an elementary school.

In the next room, an expectant mother calmly awaited her eighth child, expected at any time.

Winds To Drop
"We don't want to be any trouble," said Mrs. Fred Flores. She motioned for her eldest to round up younger brothers and sisters watching television in the auditorium.

"We can't put them to bed until after they see Zorro," said Tommy Esparza, a schoolteacher who volunteered his services after water swept over 100 blocks here.

The Weather Bureau said tides along the lower Gulf Coast would be about three feet above normal but winds that reached 40 m.p.h. last night were expected to diminish slightly today. Small craft were warned to stay in port from Texas to Florida.

Dozens of fishermen were marooned at scattered points along the Texas and upper Mexico coasts. Fishing vessels caught in the open sea faced a rugged but-fetters.

Floods Ease
Update in northwest Texas, a warm sun broke through leaden skies yesterday and began melting heavy snow that drifted as much as three feet deep in places. The snow stranded an estimated 500 travelers for a time before roads were cleared.

In the Corpus Christi area, floods eased after driving hundreds from their homes over the weekend.

DEMANDS ARMY ANSWER GAVIN ON PROMOTION

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) demanded today the Army answer Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin's testimony that his expected promotion was sidetracked after he criticized Pentagon missile policy.

Gavin, chief of Army research and development, disclosed he has asked retirement effective March 31. He said he wanted to be free to "recommend, to apply creative thinking to national defense."

Johnson said the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, of which he is chairman, will question Secretary of the Army Brucker later this week to "establish the facts."

"Serious Concern"
"It is a matter of serious concern to us that there be even a hint of reprisal against any witness that appears before us," Johnson, the Senate majority leader, told reporters.

Gavin informed a closed session of the subcommittee that he announced his retirement after Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff, told him he was "no longer being considered" for promotion to four-star rank and assignment to the Continental Army Command.

Johnson quoted Gavin as saying he could not "document" a statement that this post was refused him because of testimony he gave the committee Dec. 13.

Decline Comment
He said he had been told a year earlier that he was being favorably considered for the post, and added: "I feel intuitively that the decision (to change that plan) may have been clouded by my testimony."

Brucker declined direct comment until he has had a further chance to talk with Gavin, but he said through an aide that Gavin "has a brilliant future in the Army and is certainly four-star material."

Urges Promotion
Brucker also expressed hope that Gavin "will reconsider his thoughts of retirement" and remain in his present post.

Meanwhile, Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) recommended that the committee urge Brucker not to accept Gavin's request for retirement and that he give Gavin "the promotion he deserves."

Appearing before the subcommittee Dec. 13, Gavin testified that he had been turned down repeatedly on requests for authority to send a satellite aloft with the Army's Jupiter-C experimental missile. And he urged that the Joint Chiefs of Staff be abolished in order to increase Pentagon efficiency.

COSTLY CHOP SUEY
DETROIT (AP)—Police were unsympathetic when James Butler told them his hunger caused his car to zigzag on a busy expressway. He was eating a carton of chop suey at the wheel. Twenty-five dollars and costs, said the judge.

DOG DYED RED
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A pink and black dog frolicking in front of the Board of Supervisors' office caused passers-by to blink.

Owner Dan Espinoza explained, "My wife spilled tincture of mercuric iodine on a couple weeks ago. It wouldn't come out so we dyed him with red Easter egg coloring."

Now Many Wear FALSE TEETH
With More Comfort

FASTEETH, a pleasant alkaline (non-acid) powder, holds false teeth more firmly to eat and talk in more comfort. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.
